CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

Order under Section 12

Proposed Cy-pres Scheme Relating to the Estate of the late Constance Janet Wilcox

THE deceased, Constance Janet Wilcox, died on 12 October 1989. In her will for which probate was granted on 29 January 1990, the testatrix made the following bequest of the balance of her residuary estate on trust:

‘...to pay and transfer the same equally between the Multiple Sclerosis Society of New South Wales for the purposes of that Society and the Australian Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation for research into arthritic and rheumatic diseases’.

There has never been an organisation named ‘The Australian Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation’. There is currently in existence a body known as ‘The Arthritis Foundation of New South Wales’ which, in 1982 when the will was made, was known as ‘The Arthritis and Rheumatism Council’. In 1985 that organisation’s name was changed to ‘The Arthritis Foundation of Australia (NSW)’ and changed again to its present name in 1991. The Arthritis Foundation of New South Wales is the only charity actively working in New South Wales to assist people with arthritis.

The Solicitor General has formed the view that the gift to The Australian Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation (a non-existent entity) in the testatrix’s will is a gift for charitable purposes and has approved a recommendation that the Attorney General establish a cy-pres scheme pursuant to section 12(1)(a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

The scheme is to be applied to give effect to the gift cy-pres to be held on trust and applied to the benefit of the Arthritis Foundation of New South Wales.

Therefore, pursuant to section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993, I hereby order that the gift to The Australian Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation be amended cy-pres to give it effect for the benefit of the Arthritis Foundation of New South Wales in accordance with the terms of the testatrix’s will, such order to take effect 21 days after its publication in the Government Gazette, in accordance with section 16(2) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

Date of Order: 9 October 2001.

RICHARD COGSWELL, SC,
Acting Solicitor General
Under delegation from the Attorney General

DISTRICT COURT ACT, 1973

PRACTICE NOTE NO. 33

CASE MANAGEMENT OF CIVIL ACTIONS

1. Commencement and Application of this Practice Note:

- 1.1 This Practice Note is issued as a direction under section 68A of the District Court Act, 1973 and replaces Practice Note No. 33 and will apply from 1 January, 2002.
- 1.2 This Practice Note applies to actions in the General List commenced on or after 1 January, 2002. It will not apply to the following actions:

1.2.1 Specialist Lists actions

The Court maintains the following 4 specialist lists of contested actions:

Construction List	Actions that are mentioned in Part 24A rule 3 of the Rules (Building and Engineering).
Commercial List	Actions that are mentioned in Part 24B rule 2 of the Rules (Commercial), but without the restriction to actions of 2 days or more hearing time.
Defamation	Any case in which defamation is alleged.
Family Relationships List	As defined in Practice Note No. 46.

Actions in these specialist lists will be directly Judge managed from the time of commencement or from the time of entry into the list under the existing rules and Practice Notes applicable to those specialist lists. In all these lists Court time standards, timetables and Court orders will apply and be strictly enforced.

- 1.2.2 Actions in the "Not ready List": The Court will maintain a "Not Ready List". Entry to that list is governed by Practice Note No. 40.
- 1.2.3 Actions accepted by the List Judge as requiring special management outside the Court's 12 month time standard. (See 5.5.2.)
- 1.2.4 Appeals: Appeals to the Court are not included in any of the Lists, and continue to be "managed" under the same procedures as in the past.

1.2.5 Statements of Liquidated Claim: Debt-collecting proceedings are not managed. An action commenced by statement of liquidated claim is not included in any List until defended; it is then immediately entered in the General List (or, as under, in the Commercial or Construction List). If, 6 months after commencement, there is no defence, and no default judgment or other finalising activity, the action is deemed to be dismissed.

1.2.6 Ordinary Statement of Claim, undefended: The plaintiff proceeds by order for judgment, listing for assessment, etc., as in the past, and the action is then removed from its List.

1.2.7 Country matters: With the exception of Newcastle, Wollongong and Gosford this Practice Note does not apply to matters commenced in the country. There are directions in place for country sittings.

2. Entry into Specialist Lists:

- 2.1 If the plaintiff endorses a statement of claim for any of the Specialist Lists and the action appears, on the face of it, to be suitable for such a List, it will be placed immediately into the appropriate List. All other ordinary statement of claim matters are placed immediately into the General List.
- 2.2 Either party can request a transfer to a Specialist List and, if the action appears, on the face of it, to be of the appropriate nature, the transfer is made without formal application. The Court retains the discretion to transfer between lists.

3. Objective of this Practice Note:

- 3.1 In accordance with the Court's published Strategic and Business Plans the Court's objective is to provide a more orderly, cost efficient and expeditious system for the final disposal of civil actions. The Plans include the aim that 90% of civil actions will be completed within 12 months of commencement and 100% within 2 years. To achieve such an aim it is necessary that all contested civil actions be within the Court's control from the time of commencement and that they meet the time standards set.
- 3.2 Disposal of actions within the Court's timeframes requires that actions be expeditiously prepared by the parties. This means that:
- Actions must not be commenced until they are ready to meet the requirements of the timetable as to preparation and hearing. (If compliance with a requirement is not possible due to the statute of limitations or other special considerations the Court may, on the application of a party, vary this requirement.)
  - Plaintiffs' solicitors must accept that there is no rest period after commencement of an action, and, in general, preparations for trial must be well under way before commencement. Where there is a reasonable possibility of settlement, the claim should not be litigated until settlement has been adequately explored.

- Legal practitioners must advise their clients, in writing, at the time of commencing an action or filing a defence, of the Court's insistence on actions being ready when the system so requires; that the Court will dismiss actions or strike out defences where parties do not meet time standards, timetables or comply with Court orders and that problems such as plaintiffs failing to notify their solicitor of a change of address or failing to attend promptly upon medical appointments can lead to the action being dismissed.
- The onus is on the parties to advise the Court if they consider that the special needs of a case are likely to require a timetable in excess of 12 months.

3.3 Failure to comply

- 3.3.1 To enable the Court to meet its objectives set out above it will be necessary to insist on strict compliance with time standards, timetables and Court orders. In the event of failure to comply the Court will give parties a proper opportunity to be heard as to the reason, however, in the absence of special circumstances non-compliance is likely to result in cases being dismissed, defences being struck out or cross-claims being dismissed. It could also result in the Court refusing to make orders for the joining of parties, amendment of pleadings and for other interlocutory orders which would result in a case not fitting into the Court time standards.
- 3.3.2 The Court will impose strict costs penalties on any party or the party's legal representatives who do not comply strictly with time standards, timetables and Court orders.

4. Management of the Lists:

- 4.1 Each of the Court's Lists has a Judge allocated to control its management, but actual hearings are allocated on the hearing day to Judges from a pool common to all 5 lists.
- 4.2 The emphasis is on compelling efficient progress of actions through the system.
- 4.3 The Court's approach is that if an action cannot meet the time standards and timetables, then, in general, it should not be commenced until it can. Consequently, adjournments and extensions of deadlines are granted only in special circumstances, never for a simple failure to prepare.

5. General list requirements

5.1 Time for service:

The time for service of ordinary and liquidated Statements of Claim is 1 month from the date of issue.

5.2 Jury demand:

A jury demand must be filed not later than 2 months before the scheduled Status Conference. Unless there are the most exceptional circumstances the Court will not extend the time for filing a jury demand.

5.3 Service of particulars and reports:

- 5.3.1 In personal injury actions such Part 9 Particulars and supporting documents, medical reports, experts' reports etc., as are available to the plaintiff at the commencement of the action, must be served with the Statement of Claim bearing in mind the provisions of Practice Note No. 38. A schedule of documents, medical reports, expert reports, to be served with the Statement of Claim as well as the Part 9 Particulars, must be filed with the Statement of Claim. Further documents and reports must be served as they become available and in accordance with this Practice Note.

5.4 Timetable:

- 5.4.1 A timetable for the future conduct of the case is to be served upon the defendant with the Statement of Claim. If the defendant does not agree with the timetable or wishes to have additional matters added to the timetable, an amended timetable is to be served upon the solicitor for the plaintiff at least 7 days prior to the first appearance before the Court.
- 5.4.2 The timetable will include all necessary steps which the parties need to take to prepare the case for hearing together with a date on which each step must be completed. These may include discovery, interrogatories, service of reports, service of documents, service of statements, amendment of any pleadings, joinder of parties, preparation of Scott schedules or anything else which is essential so as the case will be ready to be referred to arbitration, mediation or hearing before a Judge from the Status Conference.

5.5 Pre-trial Conference and Status Conference:

- 5.5.1 Proceedings in the list will be managed by way of a Pre-trial Conference and a Status Conference. The Pre-trial Conference will be appointed 3 months after the filing of the Statement of Claim.
- 5.5.2 The parties may apply at the Pre-trial Conference for a matter to be Court managed in a different manner, i.e., a case which cannot be prepared within the 12 months period. If this occurs, the Registrar will refer the matter to the List Judge for further consideration and a different form of management which may include individual Judge management. It will be a matter for the List judge to determine whether a different form of management is required.
- 5.5.3 Except as provided in 5.5.4 all parties are required to attend at this Pre-trial Conference. Each party not appearing in person must be represented at the Pre-trial Conference by a barrister or a solicitor familiar with the subject matter of the proceedings and with instructions sufficient to enable all appropriate orders and directions to be made. Disputes between the parties will be dealt with or given a date for hearing of a motion; a date for the issue of subpoenae will be provided; orders generally in relation to the preparation of the case will be made and the case will be given a date for a Status Conference.
- 5.5.4 Parties may be excused from personal attendance at the Pre-trial Conference if they have filed consent orders which have been accepted by the Court as addressing all matters necessary to have the action ready for hearing.

5.5.5 Once the Court makes orders those orders must be strictly complied with.

5.6 Subpoenae:

Subpoenae must be issued at an early time for all relevant documents and early inspection of those documents held. Generally, further dates for the issue of subpoenae will not be allowed. It is, however, accepted that at times the need for further issue of subpoenae arises out of inspection of documents and, where this happens, the Court may grant a further short period for the issue of further subpoenae.

5.7 Advice on evidence:

The Court assumes that counsel who is to be briefed for the hearing of the matter, will be briefed at an early time for an advice on evidence or for any other necessary advice as adjournments generally will not be given on the basis that a party has received late advice from counsel that certain steps in the preparation of a case need to take place. To obtain such an adjournment, it would be necessary for the party to satisfy the Court that they had previously sought counsel's advice and that this was an additional matter.

5.8 Status Conference:

5.8.1 7 months after the filing of the Statement of Claim a Status Conference will be appointed. The parties must be ready at that time to take an arbitration hearing date or have their case referred to mediation or take a hearing date before a Judge. A hearing date would generally be allocated within 1 to 2 months of the Status Conference.

5.8.2 Adjournments will usually not be granted. If any party is not ready to take such a date then the case will be referred immediately to the List Judge to show cause why the Statement of Claim or any cross claim, should not be dismissed or any defence struck out. Parties should expect that they will be required to show cause on the day of the Status Conference or soon thereafter.

5.8.3 Unless orders are made at the Status Conference, the Court generally will not permit the service of any further documents, medical reports, experts' reports, amendment of Part 9 Particulars.

5.8.4 At the Status Conference each party must file a certificate setting out details of all documents, reports, statements and any other matters which have been served and the dates upon which they were served. They will be required to also set out any future matters which have to be attended to. If a mediation date is given the parties will also be provided with a further date either for hearing or to come before the Court to fix a hearing date.

5.8.5 In addition to the above matters the Court's Plans specifically provide that:

5.8.5.1 Any case which has not been allocated a hearing date within 18 months of the initiation of the proceedings in the Court, not counting any time in the not ready list, will be listed before a Judge of the Court to show cause why the case should not be dismissed for want of prosecution or any defence struck out or any cross claim dismissed.

5.8.5.2 Any case which has not been allocated a hearing date within 2 years of the initiation of the proceedings in the Court, not counting any time in the not ready list, can be expected to be dismissed unless a Judge of the Court has extended the time for allocation of a hearing date within the 2 year period.

6. Adjournments:

6.1 Cases are not to be fixed for hearing unless they are ready for hearing.

6.2 It is the responsibility of the legal advisers of the parties to ascertain the availability of their clients and witnesses before the hearing date is taken. Cases will not be adjourned except for very good reason.

6.3 If there has to be an application for an adjournment it must be made by way of Notice of Motion and affidavit in support. Such applications to be made to the List Judge at the earliest possible opportunity and before the day of hearing.

6.4 Applications for adjournment will generally not be heard on the day of hearing unless there are exceptional circumstances. All such applications are to be listed before the List Judge.

6.5 If a case is not ready to proceed on the allocated hearing date, the party in default will be called upon to show cause why the Statement of Claim, cross claim or defence should not be dismissed or struck out.

6.6 Where appropriate, costs orders will be made in a sum of money payable within a nominated time and legal practitioners may be called upon to show cause why they should not personally pay the costs of any adjournment.

7. Motions:

7.1 Motions filed in the Long Motions List will be listed for call-over within 4 weeks of being filed and offered a hearing date within 3 months of filing. These motions must be ready to proceed to a hearing during that time frame. At the call-over the Court requires the parties to provide a timetable which must be strictly complied with.

7.2 Motions generally will be offered a hearing date within 2 months of filing.

8. Long cases:

Long cases, that is, a case estimated to take 5 days or more, will be placed in a Long Matters Call-Over. When fixed for hearing the Court will make every effort to ensure the case proceeds on the date it is listed. To enable this to occur adjournments will not be granted in these cases except in the most exceptional circumstances.

9. Arbitration rehearings:

When a matter is heard at arbitration and there is a request for re-hearing, that matter will be sent to a call-over within 14 days of the request where an early hearing date will be fixed.

10. Alternative Dispute Resolution:

It is proposed to finalise as many matters as possible through alternative dispute resolution systems. Most matters will be referred to arbitration or Court managed mediation. There are guidelines in place as to which matters should be referred to arbitration. Cases may be sent to arbitration or mediation at any time.

Chief Judge
