CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

Notice Under Section 15

Proposed Cy-Pres Scheme Estate of the Late Thomas Moore

A request was received on behalf of the Trustees of the Estate of Thomas Moore that the Attorney General settle an appropriate form of cy-pres scheme so as to administer the gift of the residuary estate of Thomas Moore, who died in 1840.

The original bequest in the Will of Thomas Moore dated 6 February 1839, stated that the residue should be divided into four equal shares and applied by the Trustees 'in the augmentation of the salaries of such one or more Clergyman or Clergymen of the United Church of England and Ireland officiating in the said Colony as shall be recommended from time to time by the Bishop of the Diocese..' There have been a number of practical impediments to compliance with this bequest.

The Trust has proposed that the quarter share of the income from residue which is required to be applied to augment the salaries of the clergymen in the various Anglican Dioceses of New South Wales be applied in shares to the Bishops of the Dioceses of New South Wales to be held on trust for the benefit of clergy licensed by the Bishop at the absolute discretion of the Bishop of each Diocese.

The Solicitor General, under delegation from the Attorney General in and for the State of New South Wales, has formed the view that the trust is a charitable trust and it is appropriate for a cy-pres scheme to be ordered pursuant to section 12 (1) (a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993, so as to enable the residue trust moneys to be applied in shares to the Bishops of the Dioceses of New South Wales to be held on trust for the benefit of clergy licensed by the Bishop at the absolute discretion of the Bishop of each of the Dioceses.

Take note that within one month after the publication of this notice any person may make representations or suggestions to the Attorney General in respect of the proposed scheme.

A copy of the proposed scheme may be inspected, by appointment, during business hours at Level 9, Goodsell Building, 8-12 Chifley Square, Sydney. Please telephone (02) 9228 8102 for an appointment.

LAURIE GLANFIELD,
Director General,
