CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

ORDER UNDER SECTION 12
CY-PRES SCHEME RELATING TO THE ARMIDALE BABY HEALTH CENTRE

BY Deed of Trust dated 14 June 1934, Mr George Nott transferred property at 174 Rusden Street, Armidale to be held on trust for the erection of a 'Baby Health Centre.' Following the donation of the land, the building at which the business of the Armidale Baby Health Centre was conducted was built with public funds. In 1993 the Baby Health Centre (now known as the Early Childhood Centre) relocated to another building at the Armidale Regional Hospital, making the building at 174 Rusden Street redundant. The original trust at this point became impracticable of performance and had failed. The original purpose of the Trust having failed, it was agreed by the three Trustees that the property at 174 Rusden Street would be sold and a cy pres scheme sought to distribute the proceeds.

It has been submitted that the proceeds of the sale, which amount to $101,033.44, be applied to other services provided by the Armidale and New England Hospital to mothers and children as well as to two other child-related services, as follows:

- 1) To the Armidale and New England Regional Hospital to be used for the purchase of equipment for the Maternity Unit as described by the New England Area Health Service – $71,760.81.
- 2) To the Armidale and New England Regional Hospital to be used for the purpose of purchasing a gynaecology examination couch and other equipment for use by the Obstetrician and Gynaecologist – $16,741.97.
- 3) To the 'Hope for the Children' organisation at Armidale – $6,265.33.
- 4) To the Telstra Child Flight rescue helicopter service at Wentworthville NSW – $6,265.33.

I have formed the view that the gift of property to be held on trust for the erection of a baby health centre is a gift for charitable purposes and I have approved a recommendation that the Attorney General establish a cy pres scheme pursuant to section 12(1)(a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 to enable the Trustees to distribute the proceeds of sale of 174 Rusden Street as detailed above.

Therefore, pursuant to section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act, I hereby order that the proceeds of sale of 174 Rusden Street Armidale be applied cy pres for the purposes detailed above, such order to take effect 21 days after its publication in the Government Gazette, in accordance with section 16(2) of the Charitable Trusts Act.

Date of Order: 30 July 2002

Solicitor General
