STATUTORY AND OTHER OFFICES REMUNERATION ACT

Report and Determination on the Remuneration of Public Office Holders

REPORT:

1. ON 16 December 2002 the Premier, the Hon Bob Carr MP directed the Tribunal to make a special determination, pursuant to section 14 of the Act, on the remuneration of a number of Statutory Office Holders whose conditions of employment had altered. The Offices referred to the Tribunal by the Premier were the following:

Clerk, Legislative Assembly
Deputy Clerk, Legislative Assembly
Chairperson, Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal
Deputy Chairperson, Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal
Senior Member, Consumer Trader and Tenancy Tribunal
President, Mental Health Review Tribunal
Deputy President, Mental Health Review Tribunal
Chairman, Local Land Boards.

2. The Premier has advised that each of the abovementioned office holders, when appointed to their office had an entitlement to a motor vehicle at either no cost or minimal cost as part of their employment arrangements. These arrangements have now changed in that the offices have elected to forego this entitlement and instead will now be provided with motor vehicles on a salary sacrifice basis in accordance with normal public service conditions.
3. The Tribunal has examined the issue of motor vehicle entitlements for public office holders in each of its previous three annual determinations and earlier in the year made a special determination in regard to this matter.
4. Essentially, the Tribunal considered that it was no longer appropriate to provide office holders with motor vehicles at no cost. To ensure consistency within the public sector, these office holders should only have access to motor vehicles on a salary sacrifice basis.

5. The Tribunal notes that in accordance with Premier's Department Circular 2002/43 of 23 September 2002, motor vehicles in the public sector are only available on a salary sacrifice basis.
6. To ensure officers were not disadvantaged the Tribunal determined that a motor vehicle allowance should be paid to those office holders who voluntarily withdrew their entitlement to this non-financial benefit.
7. The Act provides the Tribunal with broad discretion when determining the remuneration of office holders. It can determine allowances for particular office holders or it can determine that the remuneration for identical office holders may be expressed differently. Section 16 provides:

“(5) The Tribunal may, in a determination that applies in relation to an office specified in Schedule 2 or 3, provide that a special allowance (whether or not in addition to any other allowance) is payable only to the holder of the office who is named in the determination.

(6) A determination may be made so as to apply differently as between two or more persons holding the same office, being an office specified in Schedule 2 or 3 but not Schedule 1.”
8. The officers in question are all listed in Schedule 2 of the Act
9. The Tribunal considers that rather than provide an allowance it would be appropriate that the remuneration for these office holders be reassessed in light of the changed conditions of employment. It will, therefore, abolish the motor vehicle allowance as determined in the annual determination of 6 September 2002 and make a new determination on the remuneration of these office holders.
10. In making its determination the Tribunal has had regard to the value of the entitlement previously available to the office holders which is now no longer available to them.

President Mental Health Review Tribunal

11. In reviewing this matter the Tribunal has noted the particular circumstances of this office holder. The Tribunal notes that his predecessor had an entitlement to a motor vehicle but because of changes introduced by the Tribunal in its 2001 determination this officer was deemed ineligible to receive either a motor vehicle or the allowance.
12. Subsequent changes by the Tribunal removed these restrictions but the officer had made private arrangements for a motor vehicle which he currently retains.
13. After reviewing this matter the Tribunal is of the view that this office holder had an entitlement to a motor vehicle and continued to have such an entitlement until his election to forego it on and from 5 December 2002.

14. The Tribunal is also aware that there are a number of Senior Members within the Consumer Trader and Tenancy Tribunal who work on a part time basis but have an entitlement to a motor vehicle as part of their conditions of employment. While the Tribunal does not make determinations for these office holders, it does recommend that in their case the arrangements should mirror those of their full time counterparts ie provided that they elect to forego their existing entitlement their remuneration should be increased, on a pro rata basis.

DETERMINATION:

- 1) Pursuant to section 14 of the Act the Tribunal determines that the remuneration and the motor vehicle allowance contained in the Tribunal's annual determination of 6 September 2002 is withdrawn effective on and from 1 October 2002.
- 2) The remuneration of the following office holders shall be on and from 1 October 2002:

Clerk, Legislative Assembly	$158,800
Deputy Clerk Legislative Assembly	$136,315
Deputy Chairperson, Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal	$185,680
Senior Member, Consumer Trader and Tenancy Tribunal (Who has elected to forego the motor vehicle entitlement)	$151,550
Deputy President, Mental Health Review Tribunal (Who has elected to forego the motor vehicle entitlement)	$176,305
Chairman, Local Land Boards.	$141,020
- 3) The remuneration of the following office holder shall be on and from 3 December 2002

Chairperson, Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal	$200,765
----------------------------------------------------	-----------
- 4) The remuneration of the following office holder shall be on and from 5 December 2002

President, Mental Health Review Tribunal	$200,765
------------------------------------------	-----------
- 5) The remuneration of the President Mental Health Review Tribunal shall be increased by an amount of $12,000pa for the period from his entry on duty up to and including 4 December 2002.

TRAVEL AGENTS ACT 1986

List of Licensed Travel Agents

SECTION 40 (2) of the Travel Agents Act 1986 requires the Director General of the Department of Fair Trading to publish in the Government Gazette from time to time a list of licence holders.

Section 40 (7) of the Act deems the supplier of travel services to an unlisted travel agent to have aided and abetted that person in carrying on business as a travel agent. Thus the supplier could be subject to the same penalty of 500 penalty units as the agent is trading without a licence.

Suppliers of travel services should not deal with an unlisted person or corporation unable to produce a travel agent's licence.
