Workers Compensation (General) Amendment (Costs in Compensation Matters) Regulation 2003

under the

Workers Compensation Act 1987 and Workplace Injury
Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Workers Compensation Act 1987 and the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998.

JOHN DELLA BOSCA, M.L.C.,
Special Minister of State

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Workers Compensation (General) Regulation 1995 to:

- (a) restrict the circumstances in which more than one medical report in a particular specialty may be admitted in proceedings in a claim for compensation, and
- (b) provide for recovery of certain travelling and accommodation expenses incurred by legal practitioners in connection with attendance at proceedings before the Workers Compensation Commission, and
- (c) provide for some additional costs to be recoverable by legal practitioners or agents acting in a claim for workers compensation, and
- (d) increase the amount of costs that are currently recoverable for some activities or events, and
- (e) make amendments by way of law revision.

This Regulation is made under the Workers Compensation Act 1987, including section 280 (the general regulation-making power), and section 337 of the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998.

Clause 1 Workers Compensation (General) Amendment (Costs in Compensation Matters) Regulation 2003
