Criminal Records Amendment (Exclusion) Regulation 2003

under the

Criminal Records Act 1991

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Criminal Records Act 1991.

BOB DEBUS, M.P.,
Attorney General

Explanatory note

Section 9D of the Bail Act 1978 provides that an authorised officer or court is not to grant bail to a person who is charged with a serious personal violence offence and who is a repeat offender unless the authorised officer or court is satisfied that exceptional circumstances justify the grant of bail. A person is a repeat offender for the purposes of the section if the person has a previous conviction for a serious personal violence offence (as defined in that section) other than the offence in connection with which bail is being sought.

The object of this Regulation is to exclude convictions for serious personal violence offences from the operation of section 12 of the Criminal Records Act 1991 for the purposes of applying section 9D of the Bail Act 1978. This will enable authorised officers to take into account a person's convictions for serious personal violence offences that are otherwise "spent" under the Criminal Records Act 1991 in applying section 9D. (No such exclusion is required in relation to courts as section 12 of the Criminal Records Act 1991 does not apply to courts' proceedings or decision-making.)

This Regulation is made under the Criminal Records Act 1991, including section 25 (the general power to make regulations).

Clause 1 Criminal Records Amendment (Exclusion) Regulation 2003

Criminal Records Amendment (Exclusion) Regulation 2003

under the

Criminal Records Act 1991

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Criminal Records Amendment (Exclusion) Regulation 2003.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on 23 August 2003.

3 Amendment of Criminal Records Regulation 1999

The Criminal Records Regulation 1999 is amended by inserting after clause 5C:

5D Exclusion of consequences of certain convictions being spent for purposes of applying section 9D of Bail Act

- (1) Section 12 of the Act does not apply in relation to a conviction of a person for a serious personal violence offence for the purposes of applying section 9D of the Bail Act 1978.
- (2) In this clause, serious personal violence offence has the same meaning as in section 9D of the Bail Act 1978.

under the

Occupational Health and Safety Act 2000

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2000.

JOHN DELLA BOSCA, M.L.C.,
Minister for Commerce

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to amend the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation 2001 by:

- (a) altering the list of workplace incidents that must be reported to WorkCover to include specific reference to incidents involving risk of serious injury or illness to a person resulting from use or threatened use of a weapon or robbery, and incidents of electric shock involving risk of serious injury to a person (replacing an existing general reference to an incident of violence resulting in an injury to an employee that causes a period of absence from work), and
- (b) requiring notice of workplace incidents to be given by electronic communication or by telephone, and
- (c) making it clear that notice of workplace injury is not required to be given by the employer of a worker if the employer has already given notice under injury notification provisions of the Workplace Injury Management and Workers Compensation Act 1998, and
- (d) removing provisions for the giving of notice by employers that duplicate provisions of the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2000, and
- (e) altering provision for the keeping of copies of incident notifications to require the making and keeping of a record of incidents notified to WorkCover, a record of the giving of an incident notice and a record of any acknowledgement of an incident notice received from WorkCover, and

Occupational Health and Safety Amendment (Incident Notification) Regulation 2003

Explanatory note

- (f) changing references to “occurrence” and “event or circumstance” to “incident”, for consistency with the terminology of the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2000 following recent amendments.

This Regulation is made under the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2000, including sections 33 (the general regulation-making power), 86 and 87.

In accordance with the provisions of section 23 of the Racing Administration Act 1998, the Minister for Gaming and Racing has approved of the following amendments to the Bookmaker Sports Betting Rules:

Amendment of Rule 3.1.7

Rule 3.1.7 is deleted and replaced by a new rule in the following terms:

“3.1.7 Currency of odds displays

Sports Bookmakers will use their best endeavours to ensure the currency of all:

- a) markets on which they are conducting sports betting: and
- b) odds quoted on outcomes or contingencies in those markets on which they are conducting sports bets, but are not liable for any errors or omissions or the exercise of a discretion under 4.3.”

New Rule 3.1.8

Immediately after Rule 3.1.7, new Rules 3.1.8 and 3.1.9 are inserted in the following terms.

“3.1.8 Refusal of bets

Sports bookmakers may refuse or decline to accept any sports bets at their sole and absolute discretion and for any reason whatsoever. Sports bookmakers are not required to state or provide any reasons for refusing or declining to accept any sports bet.”

“3.1.9 Refunds

Except as specifically and expressly provided in these rules or required by law, no customer is entitled to any refund of or in respect of any amount of any sports bet. This clause does not prevent sports bookmakers, in their sole and absolute discretion, refunding in whole or in part the amount of any sports bet but any such refund or other payment which sports bookmakers, in their sole and absolute discretion, elect to make will be without prejudice and will not be binding on the sports bookmaker or create any precedent or entitlement in any other person or entitlement in respect of the same customer in respect of any other bet.”

New Rule 4.3

Immediately after Rule 4.2, a new Rule 4.3 is inserted in the following terms:

“4.3 NO REQUIREMENT TO QUOTE ON ALL POTENTIAL OUTCOMES OR CONTINGENCIES

- 4.3.1 Sports bookmakers may, in their sole and absolute discretion, determine the outcome or contingencies within a sports betting event or a form of sports betting on a sports betting event on which sports bookmakers will accept sports bets or quote odds (including without limitation, whether an Outcome Not Quoted selection is offered).
- 4.3.2 Sports bookmakers are not required to accept sports bets or quote odds on all potential outcomes or contingencies within a sports betting event or a form of betting on a sports betting event.
- 4.3.3 Sports bookmakers may, in their sole and absolute discretion, elect to accept sports bets or quote odds on only some of the potential outcomes or contingencies within a sports betting event or a form of betting on a sports betting event. All sports bets stand regardless of whether or not, at the time the relevant sports bet was made or at any time prior or subsequent time, the sports bookmaker accepted, or was prepared to accept, bets or quoted odds on the outcome or contingency which ultimately occurred.
- 4.3.4 If a sports bookmaker elects not to list all potential outcomes or contingencies within a form of betting on a sports betting event, the sports bookmaker must clearly state that quotes are available on request for the remaining potential outcomes.
- 4.3.5 Sports bookmakers may, in their absolute and sole discretion, at any time prior to the close of betting and without notification or reason:
- a) elect not to accept sports bets or cease to quote, or suspend quotation of, odds on a particular outcome or contingency in a sports betting event or a form of betting on a sports betting event;
 - b) commence or resume accepting sports bets or quoting odds on a particular outcome or contingency in a sports betting event or a form of betting on a sports betting event; and
 - c) accept a sports bet on a particular outcome or contingency in a sports betting event or a form of betting on a sports betting event notwithstanding that the sports bookmaker was not at the relevant time quoting odds on that outcome or contingency.”

Amendment of Rule 5.1.1

Rule 5.1.1. is deleted and replaced by a new rule in the following terms:

“5.1.1 All-in Basis

All sports bets are made on an All-in basis except where:

- a) some other basis is expressly and specifically agreed between a duly authorised officer of the sports bookmaker and the customer at the time of making the relevant sports bet; or
- b) an additional proviso applied by a sports bookmaker to the relevant sports bet in accordance with clause 1.4 expressly and specifically that the sports bet is not made on an All-in basis.”

Amendment of Rule 5.1.4

Rule 5.1.4 is amended by deleting the words “absolute discretion” and substituting “sole and absolute discretion”.

“6.2 DISCLAIMER

A sports bookmaker is not, except as otherwise expressly and specifically provided in these rules or required by law, liable to any person (including without limitation for any loss or damage suffered or claimed to have been suffered by a person) as a result of, or in way arising out of or as a consequence of any of the following:

Explanatory Notes:Cooling off period

The Act provides that there is to be a cooling-off period for every agency agreement which relates to the sale of residential property or rural land in New South Wales.

What does this mean?

If you are the client of an agent licensed under the Act, you can decide to rescind the agency agreement by serving a written notice of rescission on the agent in accordance with s.60 of the Act, during the cooling-off period.

Effects of rescission

- Service of a notice of rescission terminates the agency agreement from the time the agreement was entered into.
- Neither the agent nor you is required to pay any amount by way of commission, damages, costs or expenses for or in connection with the agency agreement or its rescission.
- However, the agent must refund any money that you have already paid to the agent under the rescinded agreement.

Start and finish of cooling-off period

The cooling-off period commences when the agency agreement is signed by you or on your behalf. If more than one person is to sign the agreement the period will commence after the last person has signed.

When the agreement has been signed you have until 5 p.m. on the next day that is either a business day or a Saturday to rescind the agreement.

What is a business day?

A business day is a day other than a Saturday, Sunday, public holiday or bank holiday in New South Wales.

Can the cooling-off period be extended?

Yes. The cooling-off period may be extended by either:

- a provision in the agency agreement; or
- in writing by the agent before the period is due to end.

Giving up your right to a cooling-off period

You may give up your right to a cooling-off period by signing a waiver of the right in the form provided below.

STATUTORY AND OTHER OFFICES REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL

Report and Determination: President, Deputy President and Registrar, Workers Compensation Commission.

REPORT:

Background:

1. On 13 August 2003, the Premier of New South Wales, the Hon. BOB CARR, M.P., directed the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Tribunal (SOORT), pursuant to section 14 (2) of the Statutory and Other Offices Remuneration Act 1975 (the Act), to make a determination concerning the salary to be paid to the President, Deputy President and Registrar of the Workers Compensation Commission (WCC).
2. The WCC was established in 2001 to provide a fair and cost effective system for the resolution of disputes under the Workers Compensation legislation. The WCC is intended to provide a timely service to ensure workers' entitlements are paid promptly and that where necessary it provides an independent dispute resolution service that is effective in settling matters between the parties in accordance with the legislation.
3. When the WCC was established the remuneration for the President Deputy Presidents and the Registrar were determined by the Minister. Following advice from the Tribunal the Minister set the following rates for these office holders.

President WCC	$245,435
Deputy President WCC	$169,500
Registrar	$160,240
4. Amendments contained in the Compensation Court Repeal Act 2002, transferred statutory responsibility for remuneration setting for these offices to SOORT. This section of the Act came into effect on and from 4 October 2002.

Review

5. This Special Determination precedes the annual review which will be effective from 1 October 2003. Therefore this special determination provides the opportunity to bring the existing rates up to date so that they can become the basis upon which the annual review will take place.
6. In making this special determination regard will be given to the general increases granted to other public office holders by SOORT since October 2001.
7. The office holders in the next two weeks will be given the opportunity to meet the Tribunal and make further representations as to the rates that they consider should be appropriate from 1 October 2003.

President

8. The Minister initially determined a rate that was higher than that recommended by the Tribunal. The Minister had regard to the special qualifications and experience of the newly appointed President who has existing status of a Supreme Court Judge and of the critical role that the President needed to play in establishing the new Commission arising from the Workers Compensation reforms initiated by the Government.
9. The Tribunal considers that the rate set by the Minister is appropriate for the present occupant and that the rate should continue while the current President remains in office.
10. The Tribunal considers, however, that future appointees should receive remuneration equivalent to a Supreme Court Judge. In this regard it should be noted that the Chief Judge of the Compensation Court (which the Commission effectively replaces) and whose duties and responsibilities were at least equal to those of the President had the status and remuneration of a Supreme Court Judge.
11. As a judicial office the President will be placed in the Judges Magistrates and Related Group and receive the remuneration increases provided to that Group from 4 October 2002.

Deputy Presidents

12. The Tribunal also proposes to include the Deputy Presidents in the Judges Magistrates and Related Group. The primary role of the Deputy Presidents is to hear appeals from the Arbitrators. Appeals from the decisions of the Deputy Presidents' decisions (in point of law) are to the Court of Appeal. The Deputy Presidents will also receive increases determined for the Judges Magistrates and Related Group from 4 October 2002 and 1 July 2003.

Registrar

13. In respect of the Registrar the Tribunal considers that on balance, the office should be included in the Public Office Holder Group. The Tribunal also considers that the Registrar should also receive the 2002 general increases determined for that Group. In the forthcoming Annual Review consideration will be given to whether placement in the Public Office Holders Group continues to be appropriate.

Dated: 18 August 2003.

GERRY GLEESON,
Statutory and Other Offices
Remuneration Tribunal.

Determination

Pursuant to section 14 of the Act the Tribunal determines that the remuneration payable to the President, Deputy Presidents and Registrar of the Workers Compensation Commission shall be as follows:

Office	Amount	Effective from
President	$257,005	4 October 2002
President	$260,900	1 July 2003*
Deputy Presidents	$177,975	4 October 2002
Deputy Presidents	$180,820	1 July 2003+
Registrar	$167,130	4 October 2002

* The President receives a Conveyance Allowance of $18,000 p.a., effective on and from 1 July 2003.

+ The Deputy Presidents receive a Conveyance Allowance of $13,000 p.a., effective on and from 1 July 2003.

Dated: 18 August 2003.
