Proclamation

under the

Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Amendment Act 2004
No 47

MARIE BASHIR, Governor

I, Professor Marie Bashir AC, Governor of the State of New South Wales, with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of section 2 of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Amendment Act 2004, do, by this my Proclamation, appoint 26 July 2004 as the day on which that Act (except for Schedule 2 and Schedule 3.2) commences.

Signed and sealed at Sydney, this 21st day of July 2004.

By Her Excellency's Command,

JOHN HATZISTERGOS, M.L.C.,
Minister for Justice

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

Explanatory note

The object of this Proclamation is to commence the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Amendment Act 2004 on 26 July 2004 (except for the amendments made by Schedule 2, which are to commence on the commencement of Schedule 1 [14] to the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Further Amendment Act 2002, and the amendments made by Schedule 3.2, which commenced on the date of assent).

Anti-Discrimination Regulation 2004

under the

Anti-Discrimination Act 1977

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977.

BOB DEBUS, M.P.,
Attorney General

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to remake the Anti-Discrimination Regulation 1999, which is to be repealed on 1 September 2004 by section 10 (2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

The object of this Regulation is to overcome the decision, given on 13 November 1998, of the New South Wales Administrative Decisions Tribunal (Equal Opportunity Division) in Cassidy v Cronulla Golf Club Limited. That decision held that it was unlawful, under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977, for the Cronulla Golf Club Limited to halve the membership fees of certain members of the Club on account, partly, of their age.

The Regulation comprises or relates to matters that are not likely to impose an appreciable burden, cost or disadvantage on any sector of the public.

The Regulation is made under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977, including sections 49ZYX and 127 (the general regulation-making power).

Clause 1 Anti-Discrimination Regulation 2004

Anti-Discrimination Regulation 2004

under the

Anti-Discrimination Act 1977

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Anti-Discrimination Regulation 2004.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on 1 September 2004.

Note. This Regulation replaces the Anti-Discrimination Regulation 1999 which is repealed on 1 September 2004 by section 10 (2) of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1989.

3 Definition and notes

- (1) In this Regulation, the Act means the Anti-Discrimination Act 1977.
- (2) Notes in the text of this Regulation do not form part of this Regulation.

4 Lawful activities of registered clubs

- (1) Pursuant to section 49ZYX of the Act, the provision, in good faith, of a benefit, including a concession, to a member of a registered club by reason of his or her age is declared to be lawful.
- (2) Without limiting subclause (1), a benefit, or concession, may comprise a lower membership fee than the membership fee that is paid by other members of the registered club.

- (l) any alcohol-free zone within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1993,
- (m) any area that has been identified by the police as being a problem area in relation to public drinking.

relevant premises means the premises to which a relevant application relates.

18B Categories of SIA

- (1) A social impact assessment (SIA) required to be provided in connection with a relevant application is to be a “category A” SIA or a “category B” SIA (as determined in accordance with this clause).
- (2) A “category A” SIA is required to be provided if:
  - (a) the relevant application is for:
    - (i) the removal of an off-licence to sell liquor by retail to premises that, in the case of a metropolitan area, are or will be situated within 500 metres of the previous premises, or
    - (ii) the removal of a hotelier’s licence to premises that, in the case of a metropolitan area, are or will be situated within 1 kilometre of the previous premises, or
    - (iii) the removal of a hotelier’s licence, or an off-licence to sell liquor by retail, to premises that are or will be situated, in the case of a country area, within 5 kilometres of the previous premises, and
  - (b) the trading hours of the relevant premises are to be the same as, or more restricted than, the trading hours of the previous premises, and
  - (c) the conditions of the licence concerned are not being varied (unless the variation relates to a condition that, in the opinion of the Board, relates to a matter that is specific to the location of the previous premises), and
  - (d) the total area of the licensed premises to which the licence is to be removed does not exceed the area of the previous premises by more than 10%.
- (3) A “category B” SIA is required to be provided in connection with any other relevant application.

Regulation 2004

Amendments

Schedule 1

- (4) For the purposes of subclause (2) (a), the distance between the the premises to which the licence is to be removed and the previous premises is to be measured in a straight line on a horizontal plane from the closest boundaries of the premises concerned.
- (5) In deciding, for the purposes of subclause (2) (c), whether or not a condition of a licence is a condition that is specific to the location of the previous premises, the Board is, without limiting the operation of section 62F (4) of the Act, subject to the guidelines furnished by the Minister under section 62F (3) of the Act.
- (6) If the area of the previous premises has been redefined under section 90 of the Act at any time during the 5-year period immediately preceding the relevant application, the area of the previous premises is, for the purposes of subclause (2) (d), taken to be the largest area of the premises during that period.

- (7) In this clause:

country area means an area of the State that is outside of a metropolitan area.

metropolitan area means any of the following areas as determined by the Australian Bureau of Statistics:

- (a) the Sydney Statistical Division,
- (b) the Statistical Local Areas of Newcastle (Statistical Local Areas 5901 and 5902),
- (c) the Statistical Local Area of Lake Macquarie (Statistical Local Area 4650),
- (d) the Statistical Local Area of Wollongong (Statistical Local Area 8450).

previous premises, in relation to a relevant application, means:

- (a) the licensed premises from which the licence concerned is to be removed, or
- (b) in the case where the court or the Board has imposed a condition that the licence concerned is to be held in a dormant capacity—the premises on which liquor was last sold under the licence.

- (m) where available, the Statewide statistics for the social health indicators specified in paragraph (l),
  - (n) in the case of a local government area where there is a recognised Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community or a recognised community of persons from a non-English speaking background—the views of the leaders of any such community as to the need for any additional licensed premises in the area.
- (2) In the case where the relevant premises are or will be situated near the boundary of another local government area, the SIA:
    - (a) may also include the information specified in subclause (1) (d), (e), (f), (g), (l) and (n) in relation to that other local government area, and
    - (b) must include that additional information in such cases as may be directed by the Board.
  - (3) In the case where the relevant premises are or will be situated in a locality that comprises a recognisable or discrete local community, the SIA may, in addition to the information required in relation to the local government area or areas concerned, also include the information specified in subclause (1) (d), (e), (f), (g), (l) and (n) in relation to that locality.
  - (4) The following matters must be assessed or addressed in a “category B” SIA:
    - (a) the extent of the impact that the granting of the relevant application would or might have on noise, parking and traffic levels and on the amenity of the local community (including the potential for increased littering, vandalism and public drunkenness),
    - (b) whether the relevant application, if granted, would or might result in a significant change to the character or identity of the local community,
    - (c) the potential for increased social and community amenity, including regeneration of the locality and buildings, employment opportunities, expansion of

- (1) the occupier of any premises in the immediate vicinity of the relevant premises.
- (2) The copy of the SIA must be accompanied by a document, in the form approved by the Board, explaining the purpose of the SIA and the recipient's role in the consultation process.
- (3) Each person, body or organisation provided with a copy of the SIA under this clause is to be invited to make submissions to the Board on the social impact assessment within 30 days of receiving the copy of the assessment (or such longer period as the Board may approve).
- (4) The Board may also invite submissions on the SIA from such other persons or bodies as it thinks relevant.
- (5) In determining the SIA, the Board is to take into account any submissions made to it under this clause.

18G Advertising of SIA when relevant premises not erected or occupied

In the case where the relevant premises to which a relevant application relates are not yet erected or occupied by the applicant, section 62E (1) (a) of the Act is complied with if the SIA that is required to be provided in connection with the application is dealt with as follows:

- (a) by placing a copy of the SIA on exhibition on premises in the area in which the relevant premises are or will be situated,
- (b) by allowing any person to inspect, at no cost, the SIA at those premises between the hours of 9 am and 5 pm on Monday to Friday (or at such other times as the applicant thinks fit),
- (c) by attaching a notice to the outside of the relevant premises, or to the perimeter of any vacant site on which those premises will be erected, in such a way that the notice can be easily seen and read by a member of the public passing the premises or site, being a notice stating:
  - (i) that a SIA in connection with an application for a licence or licence removal in relation to those premises can be inspected by any member of the public at no cost, and

Insert after the heading to the Part:

Division 1 Licence fees

59 Fee for grant of hotelier’s licence or off-licence (retail)

For the purposes of section 56 (1) (a) and (b) of the Act, the prescribed fee for the granting of a hotelier’s licence or off-licence to sell liquor by retail is $2,000.

60 Annual fee for hotelier’s licence or off-licence (retail)

- (1) For the purposes of section 56C (1) of the Act, the prescribed fee is $2,500.
- (2) In accordance with section 56C (3) of the Act, the annual licence fee under that section is not payable in respect of a hotelier’s licence, or an off-licence to sell liquor by retail, that was in force immediately before the commencement of this clause.

Police Amendment (Supplementary Policing) Regulation 2004

under the

Police Act 1990

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Police Act 1990.

JOHN WATKINS, M.P.,
Minister for Police

Explanatory note

Clause 106 of the Police Regulation 2000 currently enables the Commissioner of Police to charge for certain police services that are supplementary to those that would otherwise be provided by the police. The object of this Regulation is to remove restrictions concerning the nature of those services and the locations at which they may be provided.

This Regulation is made under the Police Act 1990, including sections 208 and 219 (1) (the general regulation-making power).

Property, Stock and Business Agents Amendment (Tenant Databases) Regulation 2004

under the

Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002.

REBA PAIGE MEAGHER, M.P.,
Minister for Fair Trading

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to specify rules of conduct in relation to the practice of listing persons on tenant databases. The rules of conduct are to be observed by real estate agents engaged in property management and on-site residential property managers (as well as by their employees who are registered persons). The failure to observe such a rule is an offence under clause 11 (4) of the Property, Stock and Business Agents Regulation 2003.

This Regulation is made under the Property, Stock and Business Agents Act 2002, including sections 37 (Rules of conduct for licensee's business) and 230 (the general regulation-making power).

1 Definitions

In this Schedule:

database operator means the person who operates a tenant database.

list a person on a tenant database means give personal information about the person to the database operator for entry on the database.

listed person means a person whose personal information is listed on a tenant database.

personal information means:

- (a) the name of a natural person, and
- (b) any information (including an opinion) about the person that relates to, or arises from, the occupation of residential premises by the person under a residential tenancy agreement.

residential tenancy agreement has the same meaning as in the Residential Tenancies Act 1987.

tenant database means a database containing personal information, but does not include any such database kept by an agent for use only by that agent.

Tribunal means the Consumer, Trader and Tenancy Tribunal.

2 Application of Schedule

This Schedule does not apply in relation to the listing of a person on a tenant database if the listing occurred before the commencement of this Schedule.

3 Disclosure by agents of collection and use of personal information for listing on tenant database

An agent must, at the time the agent enters into a residential tenancy agreement with any person, advise the person that personal information about the person may, if the person is to be listed by the agent on a tenant database in accordance with clause 4, be used and disclosed by the agent for the purposes of that listing.

4 Restrictions on listing persons on tenant database

- (1) An agent must not list a person on a tenant database unless:
  - (a) the person was a tenant under a residential tenancy agreement in respect of which the agent provided property management services, and
  - (b) the residential tenancy agreement has been terminated in accordance with section 53 of the Residential Tenancies Act 1987, and
  - (c) the person is listed on the database for a reason referred to in subclause (2), and
  - (d) the agent has given the person written notice of the agent's intention to list the person and the reason for doing so, and

- (e) the person has been given a reasonable opportunity:
    - (i) to make submissions to the agent in respect of the proposed listing, and
    - (ii) to review or correct any personal information that is proposed to be listed on the tenant database, and
  - (f) if the agent and the person disagree about the personal information to be listed—any objection by the person in relation to the information is noted on the database.
- (2) For the purposes of subclause (1) (c), any one of the following is a reason for listing a person on a tenant database:
- (a) the person owes the landlord an amount of money as a result of either or both of the following:
    - (i) failing to pay rent under the residential tenancy agreement,
    - (ii) any damage to the residential premises intentionally or recklessly caused by the person,
  - (b) the person has failed to pay an amount of money to the landlord in accordance with an order of the Tribunal,
  - (c) the Tribunal has, on application by the landlord, terminated the residential tenancy agreement by order under section 64 of the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 on the grounds referred to in subsection (2) (a) (ii) or (b) of that section,
  - (d) the Tribunal has made an order terminating the residential tenancy agreement under section 68 of the Residential Tenancies Act 1987.
- (3) If the Rental Bond Board is holding a rental bond in relation to the residential tenancy agreement concerned, a person must not be listed for the reason referred to in subclause (2) (a) unless the amount owing to the landlord is more than the amount of the rental bond.
- (4) A person must not be listed on a tenant database for the reason referred to in subclause (2) (a) (ii) unless:
- (a) the landlord has completed a condition report in accordance with clause 8 of the Residential Tenancies (Residential Premises) Regulation 1995, and
  - (b) the damage has been noted in that condition report, and

  - (d) if the person has made an application to the Tribunal under section 16 of the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 for an order in relation to the tenancy—the Tribunal has determined the application.
- (5) Subclause (1) (d) and (e) do not apply if the agent cannot locate the person concerned after making reasonable enquiries.
- (6) An agent must record the details of the matters referred to in subclause (1) (d) and (e), or of the agent's attempts to locate the person concerned, and keep the record for at least 5 years.

5 Requirement for agent to notify database operator when debt paid

An agent must, within 7 days of becoming aware that any debt specified on a tenant database in relation to a listed person has been paid, notify the database operator that the debt has been paid.

6 Other requirements in relation to tenant databases

An agent must not use the services of a database operator for the purposes of listing any person on a tenant database unless the database is operated in accordance with the following requirements:

- (a) any person who is listed on the database must be given free access to the personal information entered on the database in relation to the person,
- (b) if the listed person claims that the personal information is inaccurate, out of date or incomplete:
  - (i) the information must be amended, without charge, in accordance with the person's claim (unless the claim is disputed by the agent), or
  - (ii) if the claim is disputed by the agent—any objection by the person in relation to the information must be noted on the database,
- (c) if a listed person pays any debt specified on the database in relation to the person within 3 months of the

WATER MANAGEMENT ACT 2000

Order under Section 85A

Authority to Take Water Not Credited to a Water
Allocation Account

Upper Namoi Regulated River Water Source

PURSUANT to section 85A of the Water Management Act 2000, the Minister for Natural Resources, by this Order, authorises regulated river (general security) access licences in the Upper Namoi Regulated River Water Source as defined in the Water Sharing Plan for the Upper Namoi and Lower Namoi Regulated River Water Sources 2003 and currently in force, to take water from uncontrolled flows where that water has not been credited to the accounts of those licences, as specified in announcements made by the Department of Infrastructure Planning and Natural Resources in accordance with clauses 38 (8) and 48 of the Water Sharing Plan for the Upper Namoi and Lower Namoi Regulated River Water Sources 2003.

These announcements will be made:

- (1) when the sum of available water determinations made for regulated river (general security) access licences in the Upper Namoi Regulated River Water Source is less than or equivalent to 0.6 Megalitres per unit share,
- (2) for access licences nominating water supply works on the Manilla River downstream of Split Rock Dam, when the flow in the Manilla River at Brabri exceeds the flow needed to satisfy downstream water orders in the Upper Namoi Regulated River Water Source plus any flows resulting from releases made as part of a bulk transfer of water from Split Rock Dam water storage to Keepit Dam water storage by, 100 Megalitres or more, and

- (3) for access licences nominating water supply works on the Namoi River, when the flow in the Namoi River at Manilla Railway Bridge exceeds the flow needed to satisfy downstream water orders in the Upper Namoi Regulated River Water Source plus any flows resulting from releases made as part of a bulk transfer of water from Split Rock Dam water storage to Keepit Dam water storage, by 200 Megalitres or more, and

The maximum volume that may be accounted as being extracted by each access licence from uncontrolled flows in any water year is the lesser of:

- (4) the difference between the sum of available water determinations to regulated river (general security) access licences multiplied by the number of unit shares specified in the share component of the access licence and the number of unit shares of the access licence multiplied by 1 Megalitre, or
- (5) the number of unit shares of the access licence multiplied by 0.5 Megalitres.

This Order takes effect on the date of gazettal and continues until it is revoked by a later Order or until the Water Sharing Plan for the Upper Namoi and Lower Namoi Regulated River Water Sources 2003 ceases.

GOSFORD CITY COUNCIL

Water Management Act 2000

Service Charges for 2004/2005

IN accordance with section 315 and 316 of the Water Management Act 2000, Gosford City Council does hereby determine the fees and charges set out in sections 1 to 6 below for the period July 1 2004 to June 30 2005 based on determination of the authority set out in A, B and C below:

- A The amount of money estimated by the Authority that is proposed to be raised by way of service charges levied uniformly on all land that is capable of being connected to the Authority's water supply pipes and sewerage service discharge pipes is $42,972,000 for the period July 1 2004 to June 30 2005.
- B All land that is capable of being connected to the Authority's water supply pipes and sewerage service discharge pipes is classified for the purposes of levying service charges on the basis of the following factors:
- (i) Whether the land is residential or non residential; and
  - (ii) The nature and extent of the water and sewerage services connected to each individual allotment.

C Service charges shall be uniformly levied on the following basis:

- (i) The nominal size of the water service supply pipe supplying water to the land or to which, in the opinion of the Authority, it is reasonably practicable for water to be supplied to the land, expressed as a charge determined by the nominal diameter of the service connection attaching to the Authority's meter;
- (ii) By charge following an assessment of the cost of supplying water and sewerage services by the Authority; and
- (iii) Where water pressure requires larger sizes of service connections a charge as assessed by the Authority.

PETER WILSON,
General Manager
