CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

Notice under Section 15

Proposed Cy-pres Scheme Relating to the Estate of the Late Donald Munro Armstrong

SECTION 9(1) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993, permits the application of property cy prè where the spirit of the original trust can no longer be implemented.

On 3 March 1944, Donald Munro Armstrong executed a will directing the remainder of his estate (after making trusts and provisions), be divided into twenty equal parts and distributed between thirteen beneficiary bodies. The testator died in 1946 and probate was granted in 1947. The legacies in respect of nine of the thirteen bodies were distributed in 2002. The remaining four bodies have either ceased to exist or were misnamed. These were:

1. The Historical Society of Tasmania (1/20 entitlement);
2. Forest League of Victoria (1/20 entitlement);
3. Forest League of NSW (1/20 entitlement); and
4. Contemporary Art Society of Australia, 215A George Street Sydney (2/20 entitlement).

On 16 June 2005, ANZ Trustees, the surviving trustee of the estate, applied for the establishment of a cy prè scheme under section 12(1)(a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993. The value of the assets in the estate (as at March 2005) was $180,213. The Trustee has identified five organisations which could benefit from the residue of the estate and which have aims and purposes as close as possible to those of the original bodies chosen by the testator. They are:

1. The Tasmanian Historical Research Association (1/20 entitlement);
2. Natural Resources Conservation League of Victoria (1/20 entitlement);
3. National Parks Association of Victoria (1/20 entitlement);
4. Contemporary Art Society of Victoria Inc (1/20 entitlement);
5. Contemporary Art Society of South Australia (1/20 entitlement).

The Solicitor General has determined that the original gifts were given with a charitable purpose, are valid charitable trusts and that this is an appropriate matter in which the Attorney General should approve a cy-pres scheme under section 12(1)(a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993. The proposed scheme enables the residue of Donald Munro Armstrong's estate to be distributed to the five organisations named above, in parts as specified.

Take note that within one month after the publication of this notice any person may make representations or suggestions to the Attorney General in respect of the proposed scheme. A copy of the proposed scheme may be inspected, by appointment, during business hours at Level 9, Goodsell Building, 8-12 Chifley Square, Sydney. Please telephone (02) 9228 8102 for an appointment.

Dated: 8 August 2006.

Director General,
Attorney General's Department
