CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

Notice Under Section 15

Proposed Cy Pres Scheme relating to the will of the Late
Samule Chandler

BY his Will dated 19 April 1971, Samuel Chandler left a gift of the residue of his estate, along with the proceeds of the sale of real estate at Rocky River, to the Foundation for Aboriginal Affairs 'for such purposes of the said Foundation as the managing body thereof may think fit'. There were also two successive rights of residence in the Rocky River property.

The Foundation for Aboriginal Affairs ('FAA') was placed in liquidation in 1976. In 1982, a cy pres scheme was established by the Supreme Court for the distribution of FAA's remaining assets to 12 Aboriginal organisations in specified portions.

The Public Trustee became trustee of the estate in 2005 and, following the expiration of the second right of residence in the real property, sold the real property and contents. The value of the estate is approximately $163,000.00.

The cy pres scheme ordered by the Court in 1982 no longer provides an effective means of using the trust property because many of the organisations which made up that scheme no longer exist. Furthermore, the FAA no longer exists. Other Indigenous organisations have since been established having objects which closely resemble those of the FAA. The Public Trustee has suggested the New South Wales Aboriginal Land Council (NSWALC) as the most appropriate organisation for the cy pres scheme. The objects of NSWALC readily fall within two of the four categories of charities, namely, trusts for the relief of poverty and for other purposes beneficial to the community.

A cy pres scheme whereby the gift is given to NSWALC to be used for any or all of the following purposes has been recommended:

1. Community benefit schemes under section 108 of the Aboriginal Land Rights Act 1993;
2. The Freddy Fricke Scholarship Fund;
3. The maintenance and enhancement of Aboriginal culture, identity and heritage.

Section 9 (1) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 permits the application of property cy pres where the spirit of the original trust can no longer be implemented.

The Solicitor General, under delegation from the Attorney General in and for the State of New South Wales, has formed the view that the gift from the Testator to the now deregistered Foundation for Aboriginal Affairs created a valid charitable trust. The Solicitor General has determined that it is appropriate in this matter for a cy-pres scheme to be ordered pursuant to section 12(1)(a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 to apply the gift to the NSWALC for any or all of the purposes outlined above.

Take note that within one month after the publication of this notice any person may make representations or suggestions to the Attorney General in respect of the proposed scheme.

Signed 8 September 2008.

LAURIE GLANFIELD,
Director General
Attorney General's Department
