Definitions

6. In this Notice of Exemption:

ARMCANZ means the Australian Guidelines for Sewerage Systems - Biosolids Management, published in 1995 by the ARMCANZ Water Technology Committee, Canberra and updated from time to time.

Composting means a process whereby the paunch and/or raw mulch, source separated garden organics, forestry and sawmill residues and urban wood residues, undergoes a process of managed biological transformation:

- (a) to achieve pasteurisation, and
- (b) for a period of not less than a total of 6 weeks of composting and curing and/or until an equivalent level of biological stability can be demonstrated.

Consumer means a person who applies, causes, or permits the application to land of composted paunch within the definitions of "application to land" in accordance with the Act. The consumer may be the landholder responsible for the land to which composted paunch is applied.

Engineered wood products means engineered or composite wood products such as particleboard, oriented strand board, plywood, laminated veneer lumber, glulam or fibreboard that are manufactured with glues, resins, water repellents, fire retardants, fungal inhibitors and/or other chemicals.

Paunch means the undigested food contained in the stomach of ruminant animals. This is generally considered to include partially digested grass, hay and other feed products such as grain.

Composted paunch means paunch that has undergone composting in combination with any of the following:

- (a) raw mulch,
- (b) source separated garden organics,
- (c) forestry and sawmill residues, and
- (d) urban wood residues.

Forestry and sawmill residues are untreated and uncontaminated plant materials from forestry operations such as logging, silviculture and sawmilling. Forestry and sawmill residues include materials such as bark, woodchip, sawdust and wood fibre that are collected as a source separated material stream for processing.

Pasteurisation means a process whereby the paunch and/or raw mulch, source separated garden organics, forestry and sawmill residues and urban wood residues, are treated to significantly reduce the numbers of plant and animal pathogens and plant propagules. It must undergo:

- (a) Appropriate turning of outer material to the inside of the windrow so that the whole mass is subjected to a minimum of 3 turns with the internal temperature reaching a minimum of 55°C for 3 consecutive days before each turn, or
- (b) An alternative process that guarantees the same level of pathogen reduction as required by ARMCANZ, and the elimination of plant propagules.

Preservative treated and coated wood residues means wood residues that are preservative treated with chemicals such as copper chromium arsenate (CCA), high temperature creosote (HTC), pigmented emulsified creosote (PEC) and light organic solvent preservative (LOSP) and/or coated with substances such as varnish or paint.

Processor means a person who processes, mixes, blends, or otherwise incorporates composted paunch into a material for supply to a consumer.

Raw mulch is any compostable organic plant material that is applied to land as a recycled organic product without having been subjected to an effective pasteurisation or composting process. Such materials may be shredded and/or screened to a preferred particle size grading for particular applications. Raw mulches include materials such as horticultural barks, leaf mulch and wood chip mulch produced from source separated garden organics, forestry and sawmill residues and urban wood residues.

Relevant waste means composted paunch that meets the requirements of Section 7.

Source separated garden organics means garden vegetation and plant materials that are segregated at the point of generation and are collected as a separate material stream for processing. Source separated garden organics includes material from Council garden waste collections and public drop-off collections and can include materials such as branches, grass, leaves, plant trimmings, tree stumps, bark, and the like.

Urban wood residues means untreated and uncontaminated urban derived timber and wood material that is collected as a separate material stream for processing. Urban wood residues includes materials such as off-cuts, saw dust, wood shavings, packaging crates and pallets but does not include preservative treated and coated wood residues or engineered wood products..

General conditions

7. This Notice of Exemption is subject to the following conditions:
 - 7.1. The composted paunch can only be applied to land as compost, a soil amendment material or for the purpose of biofiltration.
 - 7.2. The processor of composted paunch must provide a written statement of compliance to the consumer with each transaction, certifying that the composted paunch complies with the relevant conditions of this exemption.
 - 7.3. The consumer must land apply the composted paunch within a reasonable period of time.

Exemption Granted

Christopher McElwain
Acting Manager, Waste Management Section
Environment Protection Authority
by delegation

Notes

The EPA may amend or revoke this exemption at any time. It is the responsibility of the generator, processor and consumer to ensure that they comply with all relevant requirements of the most current exemption. The current version of an exemption will be available on the EPA website: www.environment.nsw.gov.au

In gazetting this general exemption, the EPA is exempting the relevant waste from the specific requirements of the Act and Regulations as stated in this exemption. The EPA is not in any way endorsing the use of this substance or guaranteeing that the substance will confer benefit.

The use of exempted material remains subject to other relevant environmental regulations within the Act and Regulations. For example, a person who pollutes land (s142A) or water (s120), or does not meet the special requirements for asbestos waste (clause 42), regardless of having an exemption, is guilty of an offence and subject to prosecution.

For the purposes of arrangements between a generator, a processor and a consumer, a 'transaction' is taken to mean the contractual agreement between the two parties which specifies the exchange of waste material from one party to another. A 'statement of compliance' must be in writing and be provided with each transaction.

The conditions set out in this exemption are designed to minimise the risk of potential harm to the environment, human health or agriculture, however, neither this exemption nor these conditions guarantee that the environment, human health or agriculture will not be harmed.

It should be noted that other contaminants may be present in the relevant waste that can potentially cause harm. Application rates may need to be lower than those listed in the exemption depending on local circumstances and should be determined as appropriate to those circumstances prior to application. Plants may display symptoms of toxicity, and/or reductions in yield may occur at values below the maximum concentration limits specified in this exemption.

The consumer should assess whether or not the exempted material is fit for the purpose the material is proposed to be used and whether this use will cause harm. The consumer may need to seek expert engineering or technical advice.

This exemption does not apply to any material received at a premises that is required to be licensed for waste disposal (application to land) activities under the provisions of the Act. This exemption does not remove the need for a site at which processing occurs to be licensed, if required under Schedule 1 of the Act.

This exemption does not alter the requirements of any other relevant legislation that must be met in utilising this material, including for example, the need to prepare a Material Safety Data Sheet (MSDS).

Regardless of any exemption provided by the EPA, the person who causes or permits the application of the substance to land must ensure that the action is lawful and consistent with the development consent requirements of the land.

All records required to be kept under this exemption must be made available to authorised officers of the EPA upon request.

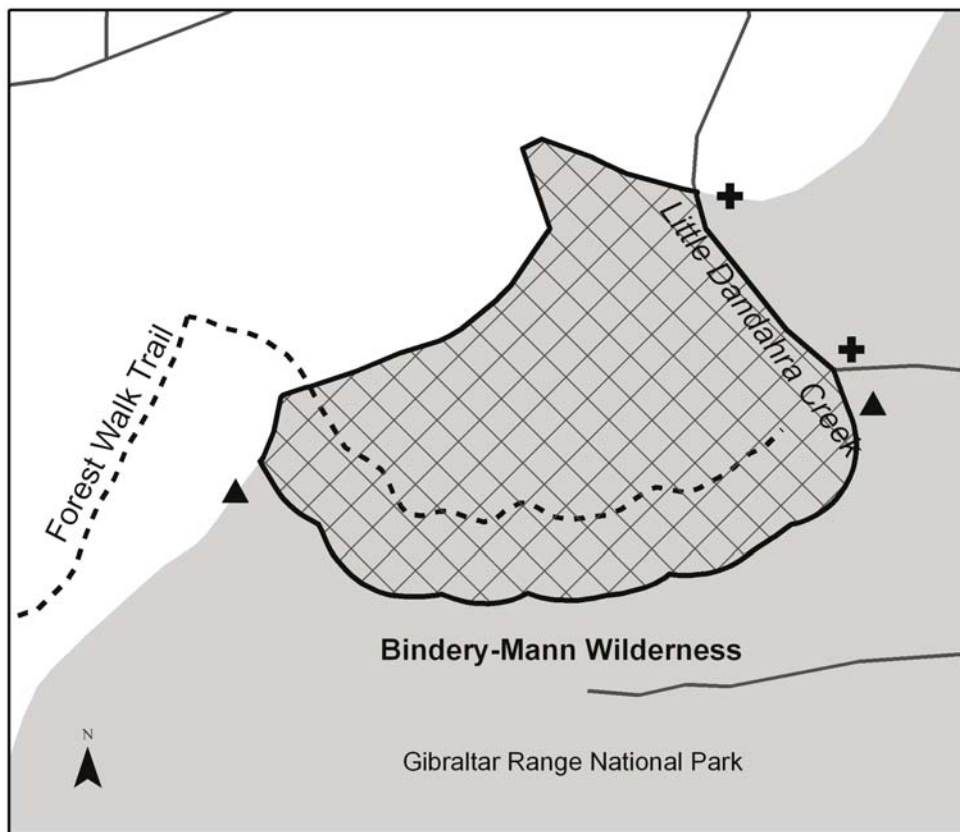

Failure to comply with the conditions of this Notice of Exemption may constitute an offence under clause 51 of the Regulation and the responsible person will be required to comply with the normal regulatory provisions.
