COAL INDUSTRY ACT 2001

ORDER No. 41

Coal Services – Health Surveillance Requirements for New South Wales Coal Mine Workers

COAL SERVICES PTY LIMITED ACN 099 078 234 ('Coal Services'), pursuant to the powers conferred by the Coal Industry Act 2001 of New South Wales hereby ORDERS as follows:

Pre-placement Medical Assessments

1. An employer of a coal mine worker or a person who contracts a coal mine worker to work in a coal operation must not permit a coal mine worker to commence working in a coal operation unless:
 - I. they have caused the coal mine worker to undertake a pre-placement medical assessment; or
 - II. they are satisfied the coal mine worker has already undertaken a pre-placement medical assessment in the previous twelve months.
2. An operator of a coal operation in New South Wales must not permit a coal mine worker to commence work in a coal operation unless satisfied the coal mine worker has undergone a pre-placement medical assessment.
3. An employer of a coal mine worker or a person who contracts a coal mine worker who has caused a coal mine worker to undertake a pre-placement medical assessment must ensure a report of the assessment is provided to the Chief Medical Officer, Coal Services, within four (4) weeks of the finalisation of the assessment.

Periodic Health Surveillance Assessment

4. An employer of a coal mine worker or a person who contracts a coal mine worker to work in a coal operation must ensure each coal mine worker undergoes a periodic health surveillance assessment:
 - I. not more than three (3) years from the date of commencement of this Order and then no more than every three (3) years after that assessment; or
 - II. in the case of a coal mine worker who first commences work in a coal operation after the date of commencement of this Order:
 - a. not more than three (3) years after the date of their pre-placement medical assessment, or, not more than three (3) years after they commence working on coal extraction and/or treatment of coal at a coal operation, whichever is the earlier, and
 - b. no more than every three (3) years after that Periodic Health Surveillance Assessment.
5. An employer of a coal mine worker or a person who contracts a coal mine worker, must allow a coal mine worker to undertake a periodic health surveillance assessment during their normal weekly roster but not within ten (10) hours of finishing his or her last shift; and be liable for any payment with respect to the employee's attendance at any assessment.
6. An employer of a coal mine worker or a person who contracts a coal mine worker who has caused a coal mine worker to undertake a periodic health surveillance assessment must ensure a report of the assessment is provided to the Chief Medical Officer, Coal Services, within four (4) weeks of the finalisation of the assessment.

In this Order:

coal operation has the same meaning as in Section 3 of the Coal Mine Health and Safety Act 2002.

coal mine worker means a natural person working on coal extraction and/or treatment of coal at a coal operation.

contracts means to engage or hire the labour of a coal mine worker other than as an employee irrespective of how the engagement or hire occurs.

employer has the same meaning as in Section 3 of the Coal Mine Health and Safety Act 2002.

operator has the same meaning as in Section 3 of the Coal Mine Health and Safety Act 2002.

periodic medical assessment means a medical assessment of at least the factors in Schedule 1 (as revised from time to time and published on the Coal Services website) conducted by a registered medical practitioner or a registered nurse supervised by a registered medical practitioner.

pre-placement medical assessment means a medical assessment of at least the factors in Schedule 2 (as revised from time to time and published on the Coal Services website) conducted by a registered medical practitioner.

registered medical practitioner means a Doctor registered by the Medical Board of Australia to practice medicine in Australia.

registered nurse means a Registered Nurse (Division 1) registered by the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia to practice nursing in Australia.

Schedule 1

Factors to Consider in a Periodic Medical Assessment

The periodic medical assessment shall include an assessment of at least the following factors:

- detailed Medical History that pays particular attention to any disease or injury, both work and non-work related. It should also include a review of any medication usage;
- Spirometry and a review of the respiratory system, including the completion of a standardised respiratory questionnaire based on the MRC(UK) Respiratory Questionnaire 1986;
- hearing assessment, including audiometry;
- vision assessment, including visual fields and colour vision;
- blood pressure assessment;
- urinalysis, cholesterol check (non-fasting), blood sugar level, Body Mass Index (BMI);
- The Kessler Psychological Distress Scale (K10): The questionnaire aims to identify workers with significant levels of psychological distress so that they may be appropriately managed with respect to their ongoing health and wellbeing;
- The Epworth Sleepiness Scale (ESS): This assessment is intended to measure daytime sleepiness and can be helpful in diagnosing sleep disorders;
- Alcohol Audit: The Alcohol Use Disorders Identification Test (AUDIT) was developed by the World Health Organisation (WHO) as a simple method of screening for excessive alcohol consumption. It provides a framework for intervention to help risk or high-risk drinkers to reduce or cease their alcohol consumption. It also helps to identify alcohol dependence;
- Cardio Risk Assessment: A rating based on guidelines that have been developed for use by Physicians to assess the risk of cardiovascular disease (CVD) in adults without known CVD. The ranking is based on guidelines produced by the Australian and American Heart Foundations.
- hazard exposure questionnaire identifying all potential environmental hazards a worker may be exposed to and includes information on the use of PPE;
- work related skin disease questionnaire;
- musculoskeletal questionnaire;
- chest x-ray (five (5) yearly for miners with a history of possible hazardous dust exposure); and
- conclusions and recommendations.

Notes:

A hazard exposure questionnaire, work related skin disease questionnaire and musculoskeletal questionnaire have been developed by Coal Services Pty Limited for the New South Wales coal industry and are available on request for use in a health surveillance assessment.

 SCHEDULE 2

 Factors to Consider in a
 Pre-placement Medical Assessment

The pre-placement medical assessment shall include an assessment of at least the following factors:

- a detailed medical history, including any past or present disease or injury and any use of medication;
- Spirometry and a review of the respiratory system, including the completion of a standardised respiratory questionnaire based on the MRC(UK) Respiratory Questionnaire 1986;
- hearing, including audiometry;
- vision, including visual fields and colour vision;
- a full musculoskeletal assessment that pays particular attention to any previous injury or underlying condition;
- a cardiovascular assessment;
- blood pressure assessment;
- urinalysis;
- Body Mass Index (BMI);
- Doctor's clinical examination and general health review, including tobacco smoking history, alcohol consumption and physical activity;
- neurological examination with particular attention to sensory or balance disorders, including the Romberg test for balance;
- chest x-ray (where the applicant has the chance of potentially hazardous exposures to coal or silica dust, unless an x-ray has been completed in the previous five (5) years); and
- Doctor's assessment of the overall fitness of the applicant for the proposed position, including any recommendations or work restrictions.

Notes:

1. The data obtained from each pre-placement medical assessment or periodic health surveillance assessment will be entered by Coal Services into its Health Assessment Database for the purpose of monitoring the health of the New South Wales coal industry as required by the Coal Industry Act 2001. This is in order to enable Coal Services to report on health trends, provide advice to the relevant Government agencies and the Minister and provide advice to coal mine operators. In doing so, the provisions of the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 and the Health Records and Information Privacy Act 2002 will be adhered to.
2. In respect of the provisions of Clause 5 of this Order, if a registered Industrial Instrument has different terms from that which is contained in Clause 5 then the provisions of the Industrial Instrument will prevail over the terms of Clause 5 of this Order.
3. The Coal Industry Act 2001 provides that a person (an individual or a corporation) must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with this Order – Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units in the case of a corporation or 50 penalty units in the case of an individual.
4. A person includes a natural person and a corporation.
5. The Coal Industry Act 2001 and the Coal Mine Health and Safety Act 2002 are available from www.legislation.nsw.gov.au
For further information contact the Coal Services on (02) 8270 3202.

Dated this 31st day of January 2011.

COAL INDUSTRY ACT 2001

ORDER NO. 42

Coal Services – Monitoring Airborne Dust

COAL SERVICES PTY LIMITED ACN 099 078 234 ('Coal Services'), pursuant to the powers conferred by the Coal Industry Act 2001 of New South Wales hereby ORDERS as follows:

1. An operator of a coal operation must allow persons appointed by Coal Services as Inspectors, pursuant to Section 25 of the Coal Industry Act 2001, to monitor airborne dust to:
 - (a) enter any coal operation for purposes related to monitoring airborne dust,
 - (b) to take dust samples, and
 - (c) to undertake all other functions and activities necessary to monitor airborne dust.

In this Order:

Monitoring airborne dust generally means, but it is not limited to, undertaking the activities and functions in Schedule 1.

SCHEDULE 1

Monitoring airborne dust

1. Monitoring airborne dust involves the regular collection and analysis of samples of airborne dust from the breathing zone of people whose health may be affected by the dust. The frequency of sampling, places and persons to be sampled in each part of a coal operation will be generally as specified in the Table below according to the operations in that part of the mine.

The Table gives minimum locations, frequencies and persons for sampling only. Where difficult, dusty or unusual circumstances occur, then rigorous sampling arrangements suitable to the circumstances will need to be undertaken

Column 1	Column 2	Column 3	Column 4	Column 5
Location	Frequency of sampling respirable dust	Frequency of sampling respirable quartz-containing dust	Frequency of sampling inhalable dust	Persons to be sampled
(a) In each part of a coal operation where longwall mining is carried out.	Each producing shift at intervals not exceeding six months.	Each producing shift at intervals not exceeding six months.	Each producing shift at intervals not exceeding twelve months.	Samples to be collected from the breathing zone of at least five persons including, where possible: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A Shearer operator. • Two powered support operators. • A deputy. • One other person selected by Coal Services Pty Limited.
(b) In each part of a coal operation where a continuous mining machine operates.	Each producing shift at intervals not exceeding twelve months.	Each producing shift at intervals not exceeding twelve months.	At intervals not exceeding twelve months.	Samples to be collected from the breathing zone of at least five persons including, where possible: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A continuous miner driver. • A sideman or cable handler. • A shuttle car driver. • A deputy. • A bootend attendant or other person selected by Coal Services Pty Limited.

Column 1 Location	Column 2 Frequency of sampling respirable dust	Column 3 Frequency of sampling respirable quartz-containing dust	Column 4 Frequency of sampling inhalable dust	Column 5 Persons to be sampled
(c) In any part of an underground coal operation where cement products are being applied.			At intervals not exceeding twelve months.	Samples to be collected from the breathing zone of at least two persons including, where possible: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Persons loading cement into a mixer. • Persons spraying or applying cement products
(d) In any place in or about an underground coal operation other than those referred to in (a), (b) or (c) above, but including crusher stations.	At intervals not exceeding twelve months.	At intervals not exceeding twelve months.	At intervals not exceeding twelve months.	Samples to be collected from the breathing zone of at least one person.
(e) In any place in or about an open cut coal operation where dust may be present.	At intervals not exceeding twelve months.	At intervals not exceeding twelve months.	At intervals not exceeding twelve months.	Samples to be collected from the breathing zone of at least five persons including, where possible: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Drill operators, shotfirers and stemmers. • Mobile equipment operators.
(f) In any place in or about a coal preparation plant located within a coal operation where dust may be present.	At intervals not exceeding twelve months.	At intervals not exceeding twelve months.	At intervals not exceeding twelve months.	Samples to be collected from the breathing zone of at least five persons where available.

2. Any further samples required by this Order will be additional to these frequencies.
3. Persons sampled must, as far as possible, remain at the same job for the duration of the test.
4. In the case where Coal Services selects the person to be sampled, the selection must be based on those activities where persons are likely to be exposed to airborne dust.
5. Failed samples will be re-sampled.
6. Determination of respirable dust:
Samples are to be collected and analysed in accordance with Australian Standard AS2985 (Workplace Atmospheres – Method for Sampling and Gravimetric Determination of Respirable Dust), except where varied by this Order.
7. Determination of respirable quartz:
The preferred methods of determination of respirable quartz are one of either ‘The Potassium Bromide Disc Infra Red Method’ or ‘The X-ray Diffraction Method’ as described in ‘Guidelines for Determination of Respirable Quartz’, publication MDG 3006 MRT 6, published by the Department of Industry & Investment – Mineral Resources.
8. Determination of inhalable dust:
Samples are to be collected and analysed in accordance with Australian Standard AS3640 (Workplace Atmospheres – Method for Sampling and Gravimetric Determination of Inhalable Dust), except where varied by this Order.
9. Sampling:
Where practicable, sampling should commence at the start of the shift and cease at the end of the shift and be as close as practicable to the working place, for example, ‘crib room to crib room’. The minimum sampling period is five (5) hours.

Definitions

In this Order:

'airborne dust' includes both respirable and inhalable dust, it is also known as 'airborne particulate matter' or 'airborne particulates'.

'breathing zone' has the same meaning as in Australian Standard AS2985 and AS3640.

'coal operation' has the same meaning as in Section 3 of the Coal Mine Health and Safety Act 2002.

'inhalable dust' has the same meaning as it has in Australian Standard AS3640 (Workplace Atmospheres – Method for Sampling and Gravimetric Determination of Inhalable Dust).

operator has the same meaning as in Section 3 of the Coal Mine Health and Safety Act 2002.

'quartz-containing dust' means respirable dust which contains five percent or more by mass of respirable quartz.

'respirable dust' has the same meaning as it has in Australian Standard AS2985 (Workplace Atmospheres – Method for Sampling and Gravimetric Determination of Respirable Dust).

'respirable quartz' means the quartz present in respirable dust.

Notes:

The data obtained from the dust sampling operations will be entered onto Coal Services' Dust Database for the purpose of monitoring workers' health as required by the Coal Industry Act 2001. Copies of the data will be distributed to the mine operator, Chief Inspector of Coal Mines and the Industry Check Inspector.

The Coal Industry Act 2001 provides that a person (an individual or a corporation) must not, without reasonable excuse, refuse or fail to comply with this Order:

Maximum penalty: 200 penalty units in the case of a corporation or 50 penalty units in the case of an individual.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT 1993

Investment Order
(Relating to Investments by Councils)

I, the Hon. BARBARA PERRY, M.P., Minister for Local Government, in pursuance of section 625 (2) of the Local Government Act 1993 and with the approval of the Treasurer, do, by this my Order, notify for the purposes of section 625 of that Act that a council or county council may only invest money (on the basis that all investments must be denominated in Australian Dollars) in the following forms of investment:

- (a) any public funds or securities issued by or guaranteed by the Commonwealth, any State of the Commonwealth or a Territory;
- (b) any debentures or securities issued by a council (within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1993 (NSW));
- (c) interest bearing deposits with, or any debentures or bonds issued by, an authorised deposit-taking institution (as defined in the Banking Act 1959 (Cwth)), but excluding subordinated debt obligations;
- (d) any bill of exchange which has a maturity date of not more than 200 days; and if purchased for value confers on the holder in due course a right of recourse against a bank which has been designated as an authorised deposit-taking institution by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority;
- (e) a deposit with the New South Wales Treasury Corporation or investments in an Hour-Glass investment facility of the New South Wales Treasury Corporation.

All investment instruments (excluding short term discount instruments) referred to above include both principal and investment income.

Transitional Arrangements

- (i) Subject to paragraph (ii) nothing in this Order affects any investment made before the date of this Order which was made in compliance with the previous Ministerial Orders, and such investments are taken to be in compliance with this Order.
- (ii) Paragraph (i) only applies to these investments made before the date of this Order and does not apply to any restructuring or switching of investments or any reinvestment of proceeds received on disposal or maturity of such investments, which for the avoidance of doubt must comply with this Order.

Key Considerations

An investment is not in a form of investment notified by this order unless it also complies with an investment policy of council adopted by a resolution of council.

All councils should by resolution adopt an investment policy that is consistent with this Order and any guidelines issued by the Chief Executive (Local Government), Department of Premier and Cabinet, from time to time.

The General Manager, or any other staff member, with delegated authority by a council to invest funds on behalf of a council must do so in accordance with the council's adopted investment policy.

Councils have a fiduciary responsibility when investing. Councils should exercise the care, diligence and skill that a prudent person would exercise in managing the affairs of other persons.

When exercising the power of investment councils should consider, but not be limited by, the risk of capital or income loss or depreciation, the likely income return and the timing of income return, the length of the term of the proposed investment, the liquidity and marketability of the proposed investment, the likelihood of inflation affecting the value of the proposed investment and the costs (including commissions, fees, charges and duties payable) of making the proposed investment.

Dated this 12th day of January 2011.

The Hon. BARBARA PERRY, M.P.,
Minister for Local Government

LOCAL COURT PRACTICE NOTE NO 1 of 2011

Online Court Protocol for Committal Matters at Downing Centre

Commencement

1. This Practice Note commences on 15 February 2011 and continues for the time period authorised under the Order issued under Schedule 1 of the ETA gazetted on 11 February 2011.

Definitions

2. In this Practice Note:

Committal Proceeding means proceedings in respect of an indictable offence, either where:

- the offence is strictly indictable, or
- the offence is a table offence (that is, an offence listed in Table 1 or Table 2 of Schedule 1 to the CPA) and the prosecution or defence has elected to have the offence dealt with by indictment, but does not include proceedings in respect of a Commonwealth offence.

CPA means Criminal Procedure Act 1986.

ETA means the Electronic Transactions Act 2000

PDF means Portable Document Format, a file format that has captured all the elements of a printed document.

Registered user means a person who has applied for and received authorisation to use Online Court. A registered user gains access to Online Court by inputting a user identification code that has been assigned, and is unique, to that user, and a password. The application form is at Attachment A.

Application

3. This Practice Note is issued for the purposes of a pilot program for committal proceedings heard at Downing Centre Local Court in which the accused person is legally represented.
4. Online Court is available for committal proceedings where the first appearance date at the Downing Centre is on or after 15 February 2011.
5. This Practice Note is to be read in conjunction with Part A of Practice Note 1 of 2010, which outlines the procedure for committal proceedings at Downing Centre Local Court and Central Local Court, and/or such other practice note that applies in relation to committal proceedings at any given time.

Object

6. Many committal proceedings require numerous Court mentions before they are ready to proceed to committal hearing. The object of this pilot program is to minimise the number of in person Court appearances and provide flexibility to Court users and the Court to ensure matters are conducted as efficiently as possible.
7. It is envisaged that, subject to an order of the Court mandating an appearance, contested section 91/93 applications or other contested matters arising, committal matters may proceed from first appearance to committal without the necessity of an accused person or their legal representative having to physically appear before the Court.

Availability of Online Court

8. Online Court is available to:
 - Legal practitioners who are registered users and are invited to participate by a Magistrate in accordance with this Practice Note, and
 - Designated managing lawyers or employed support staff nominated by these legal practitioners to submit messages to the Online Court on behalf of the practitioner where the practitioner has been properly instructed by the accused person.
9. Online Court is NOT AVAILABLE to self-represented litigants or non-parties.
10. For the first 3 months of the pilot program, Online Court will be available to legal practitioners from the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions, the Legal Aid Commission and the Aboriginal Legal Service only and will NOT be available to private legal practitioners. From 16 May 2011, Online Court will be available to all legal practitioners.

Initiating an Online Court

11. A Magistrate may order that an Online Court be initiated for a committal matter where the Prosecution and Defence agree that the matter be dealt with by Online Court.
12. If such an order is made, all legal practitioners involved must:
 - a) Complete a Referral to Online Court form (Attachment B) at the first appearance; and
 - b) Ensure that they are registered users within five working days. Practitioners yet to register as users are to complete and submit a New User Application Form (Attachment A).
13. An Online Court may be initiated only by a Magistrate or by a registry officer on behalf of a Magistrate, where that registry officer has been authorised to do so by the Chief Magistrate.

What may be dealt with in Online Court

14. At the discretion of a Magistrate, Online Court may be used for any interlocutory or procedural matter under Part 2 of Chapter 3 of the CPA or any matter under the Criminal Case Conferencing Trial Act 2008, including:
 - a) orders relating to service of briefs in accordance with Item 2 of Practice Note 1 of 2010.
 - b) case management of committal proceedings in accordance with Item 4 of Practice Note 1 of 2010, including the setting down of contested section 91/93 applications or committal proceedings for hearing.

15. At the discretion of a Magistrate, Online Court may be used for the following matters under the Bail Act 1978:
 - a) to continue bail already granted pursuant to section 43 of the Bail Act 1978;
 - b) to determine bail variations concerning reporting conditions or residency conditions provided:
 - (i) notification of the proposed change has been given to the prosecutor,
 - (ii) there is no objection to the proposed variation,
 - (iii) the condition was not imposed by the Supreme Court pursuant to section 45 of the Bail Act 1978, and
 - (iv) there is no acceptable person OR the acceptable person provides a letter of consent to the variation which is uploaded to the Online Court as a PDF by the accused person's legal representative.

Where bail is continued by order made in an Online Court, the registrar will notify the accused person by post or electronic communication of the continuation of the bail.

16. Online Court may not be used to hear arguments regarding a contested matter. The Magistrate will list contested matters in Court to be determined. Upon the resolution of a contested matter in Court, the Magistrate may return the matter to the Online Court where the Prosecution and Defence agree.
17. After each Online Court date, the Magistrate is to adjourn the matter for further mention to a later date to be determined by the Magistrate in the Online Court. The matter will be adjourned:
 - a) to be mentioned again in an Online Court, or
 - b) to have the matter listed for the personal appearance of the accused and his/her legal representative.

Conduct in an Online Court

18. As Online Court is a virtual courtroom, authorised by an Order issued under Schedule 1 of the ETA gazetted on 11 February 2011, it must only be used for issues requiring consideration and determination by a Magistrate. Online Court is not to be used for communications solely between the legal practitioners representing the parties.
19. It is expected that the legal practitioners representing the parties will have communicated between themselves prior to the listing date to come to an agreed position as to the orders sought on the listing date or, if a matter is contested and is to be listed in Court, to agree as to the issues in dispute. Each party is to post a message indicating their position, even where the orders sought are by consent.
20. A matter listed in Online Court will be dealt with by the Magistrate at any time on the listing date during ordinary business hours (8:30am to 5:30pm). Legal practitioners are to post any messages they wish the Magistrate to consider by 5:00pm on the preceding day to ensure that all messages are before the Magistrate by the morning of the listing date.
21. It is the responsibility of legal practitioners to ensure that they promptly log in to the Online Court to check the outcome of any online listing date.
22. The language used in Online Court must be the same as that used if the matter were being dealt with in an ordinary courtroom.
23. If a message is posted in an Online Court by a user who is not a legal practitioner, then the name of the authorising legal practitioner must be included in the last part of the message. A legal practitioner who authorises someone else to post a message in the Online Court is taken to have affirmed to the Court that he or she has actual knowledge of the contents of the message.

24. Undertakings given in an Online Court by a party's representative either on behalf of the party or the representative are binding as if the undertaking were given in an ordinary courtroom.
25. The rules of contempt apply to proceedings conducted using Online Court.

Re-listing

26. If a legal representative seeks to have a matter re-listed in the Online Court or in Court, he or she is to complete and submit an Application to Re-List an Online Court Matter form (Attachment C). A message seeking that the matter be re-listed is NOT to be posted in the Online Court.

Terminating an Online Court

27. An Online Court may be terminated at any time and the proceedings listed for resolution at the absolute discretion of a Magistrate or upon the request of either party.
28. A legal practitioner must complete and submit an Application to Re-List an Online Court Matter form as soon as reasonably practicable:
 - a) If the legal practitioner ceases to be instructed by a party, in which case the Online Court will be terminated and the matter re-listed in Court; or
 - b) If a legal practitioner transfers carriage of a matter to another legal practitioner, in which case the Online Court will be terminated and the matter re-listed in Court unless the legal practitioners make arrangements with the Chief Magistrate's Office for the new legal representative to be substituted as a participant in the Online Court. A new legal representative in a continuing Online Court is expected to comply with any existing orders made in the Online Court.

User Identification Code and Password

29. Each party or participant to the Online Court has his or her own User Identification Code (known as a user-id) and password. It is important that these details are kept secure and remain confidential. The responsibility for maintaining security of the user-id lies with the relevant party to the Online Court.
30. When a user-id is used to send messages and documents to an Online Court, the person to whom that user-id was allocated will be deemed by the Magistrate presiding over the Online Court to be the person who sent the messages and documents and is responsible for their contents.

Online Court Messages

31. Messages posted in an Online Court and any attached documents must be:
 - relevant to the Online Court topic under discussion;
 - brief and to the point, and
 - timely.
32. A Magistrate may, from time to time, give instructions as to:
 - the acceptable length of messages in an Online Court; and
 - the time and date by which messages must be received.

Documents

33. Documents may be attached to messages sent to the Online Court. Documents cannot, however, be filed in the Court using the Online Court. Documents can only be filed in accordance with the Court Rules. In urgent matters, a document that is to be filed may be sent to the Online Court with an undertaking that it will be filed in the Court no later than the next business day.
34. Where a message refers to a document that has been filed, a copy of the filed document may be attached to the message for ease of reference. In these cases the message should indicate the date on which the document was filed.
35. Documents sent to the Online Court must be in PDF.

Entering orders

36. Orders made by a Magistrate in an Online Court must be recorded.

Obtaining record of proceedings

37. Any person may request a printed record of Online Court proceedings, subject to any suppression order or other restrictions that might apply to the proceedings.
