ELECTRICITY (CONSUMER SAFETY) ACT 2004

Prohibition Notice

Section 21

I, John Tansey, Assistant Commissioner, Home Building Service, as delegate on behalf of the Director-General NSW Fair Trading pursuant to section 21 (1) of the Electricity (Consumer Safety) Act 2004 ("the Act"):

1. prohibit the sale of the electrical articles as described in Schedule 1 from the date of publication of this notice in the NSW Government Gazette; and

2. issue this Notice believing on reasonable grounds as specified in Schedule 2 that:
- the electrical articles as described in Schedule 1 are, or are likely to become by reason of their design or construction, unsafe to use, and
 - prohibiting the sale of the electrical articles as described in Schedule 1 is warranted by reason of the potential risk of death or injury to any person or damage to any property arising out of the use of those electrical articles.

Dated this 2nd day of October 2013.

JOHN TANSEY,
Assistant Commissioner,
Home Building Service,
NSW Fair Trading,

INTERPRETATION

“Director-General” has the same meaning as it has in the Fair Trading Act 1987: See section 3 (1) of the Act. Under section 4 (1) of the Fair Trading Act 1987, “Director-General” relevantly refers to “the Commissioner for Fair Trading, Department of Commerce”.

SCHEDULE 1

All Infinity branded cable or cables imported, sold or distributed by Infinity Cable Co Pty Ltd, of all sizes, configurations and models of ‘Polymeric Insulated Electrical Cable’ which is PVC Sheathed, PVC Insulated, Flat and Flexible Low Voltage Electrical Cable also commonly known as ‘TPS’,

All Infinity branded cable or cables imported, sold or distributed by Infinity Cable Co Pty Ltd, of all sizes, configurations and models of ‘Polymeric Insulated Electrical Cable and which is PVC Sheathed, PVC Insulated, Round and Flexible Low Voltage Electrical Cable’ also commonly known as ‘Orange Round’

The electrical cable is unsafe to use because of its design, construction or manufacture can result in the electrical cable potentially catching fire and/or electrical shock risk while in use.

This type of cable is found in all electrical installations, it is found in roof spaces, wall cavities and may, at times, be exposed on the surface of dwellings, commercial and retail premises. It is a fundamental component of conveyance of electricity in electrical installations.

Prohibition of the electrical cable is warranted by reason of the potential risk of death or injury to persons and damage to property arising out of the use of the electrical cables established by accredited testing that found the following:

A sample of the electrical cable was tested at TUV Rheinland, National Association of Testing Authorities (NATA) accredited laboratory. The results of the test revealed that the sample was non-compliant with AS/NZS 5000.2:2006 Electric Cables – Polymeric Insulated, for working voltages up to 450/700V.

The non-compliance related to the failure of the ageing tests where the insulation becomes brittle when exposed to high temperatures over varying lengths of time. The safety of the insulation is compromised resulting in a high probability of exposed wires when the insulation breaks away from the cable either by physical interference or disturbance.

A consultant, Dr Jorg-Dieter Klamann, engaged by the Australian Cablemakers Association Ltd was interviewed and the test results interpreted by him. In a signed statement, Dr Klamann indicated that the failure was amongst the worst results he had seen with a high potential for failure of both layers of insulation arising out of disturbance, animal activity and construction activity on or near the failed installed cable.

A comparative ‘Congo Red Test’ was under taken against both the Infinity brand and another known brand of cable. Further “blind” testing was conducted against the Infinity brand and a number of other brands of similar type of electrical cable. This is a valid test within AS/NZS 1660, a complementary test to the cable standard.

The test involves stripping insulation from the cable and placing a determined, identical quantity in a test tube. The test tube is then sealed with cotton wool impregnated with Congo Red acid indicator. All test tubes are heated to 200deg C and acidic gases are given off the heated samples. These gases then change the colour of the cotton wool from red to blue. The resultant colour change is timed in minutes.

The Australian industry “standard” time is to resist colour change for a minimum of 40 minutes. During the conduct of both test regimes, the Infinity brand cable changed the colour between 14 and 25 minutes for the first test, and between 14 and 18 minutes during the conduct of the second “blind” test.

The results of these tests indicate that there is a general failure of thermo-stability properties of the infinity brand manufactured cable. In view of the potential for harm arising out of the break down of insulation, a further reel of the subject cable was purchased on 4 June 2013 and conveyed to TUV Rheinland the following day for testing. The cable was tested and found to fail in an identical way to the previously tested sample.

NSW Fair Trading seized a variety of both flat TPS and Orange Round cable from various points of sales. These samples were then supplied for a ‘blind’ Congo Red test. The results of these test indicated a failure in both the outer sheath and all inner insulation of the flat TPS cables.

Testing of the Orange Round cable demonstrated a failure of the inner core insulation. Overall these tests have further highlighted an overall failure of the thermo stability properties of the Infinity branded manufactured cable.

PRACTICE NOTE SC GEN 18

Production of and access to subpoenaed material and returning exhibits and subpoenaed material in civil proceedings

Commencement

1. This Practice Note was issued on 30 September 2013 and commences on 7 October 2013.

Application

2. This Practice Note applies to production of documents in compliance with a subpoena issued in regard to civil proceedings in this Court and the return of subpoena documents and exhibits after proceedings have been determined.
3. This Practice Note is subject to Practice Note SC Eq 11.

Definitions

4. In this Practice Note:
 - (a) UCPR means Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 2005;
 - (b) Issuing party means the party requesting the issue of a subpoena for production; and
 - (c) Producing person means the person to whom a subpoena for production is addressed

Introduction

5. The purpose of this Practice Note is to inform:
 - (a) the parties of:
 - (i) their ability to nominate on the subpoena document before filing a convenient return date for the subpoena;
 - (ii) the Court's preferred practice in relation to the format of documents being produced in response to a subpoena; and
 - (iii) the Court's practice in relation to accessing subpoenaed material produced in an electronic format, and
 - (b) Producing persons and parties of the Court's practice in relation to:
 - (i) the production of bulky material; and
 - (ii) returning exhibits and subpoenaed material.

Serving the subpoena

6. The forms of subpoena to produce, and to attend and give evidence and produce, have been amended to include the Producing person's declaration (in relation to whether the documents produced are originals and whether they need to be returned). See new UCPR forms 26A and 27A. The Issuing party should provide a copy of the subpoena when it is served so that the Producing person can retain the original subpoena and forward the copy with the completed declaration to the Registry.
7. The Issuing party can nominate a convenient return date for the subpoena on the document filed at the Registry, provided that sufficient time is allowed to serve the Producing person. The Court has a subpoena list Monday to Friday at 9:00 am during the Court term. If the subpoena does not include a nominated return date, the Registry will allocate a date.

Production of subpoenaed material

8. The UCPR was updated in 2011 in relation to how to comply with a subpoena to produce. Specific attention is drawn to UCPR rule 33.6 (6) & (7).

9. UCPR rule 33.6 (6) allows the Producing person to produce a copy of documents, unless the subpoena specifically requires the original documents to be produced. The Issuing party should only specify that the original document is required in those special circumstances where the original document may need to be tendered.
 10. UCPR rule 33.6 (7) allows the Issuing party to permit the production of documents in a format that is acceptable to that party. Most Producing persons who have access to a photocopier will now also have access to a document scanner. Where documents would otherwise be photocopied to respond to a subpoena it will normally be as convenient, and less costly for the Producing person to scan those documents and save them in an electronic format. If a document already exists in an electronic format it will also be more convenient and less costly to copy that document in an electronic format rather than print it out on paper. It will also normally be more convenient for the Issuing party and the other parties to access subpoenaed documents in an electronic format.
 11. To facilitate the production of subpoenaed documents electronically (rather than paper copies), the Issuing party should indicate to the Producing person that production in an electronic format is acceptable. This should particularly be done where a large volume of material is being subpoenaed. This information for the Producing person can be included on the subpoena in the schedule describing the documents to be produced. It can also be included in a covering letter.
 12. If a document has been scanned, is a word processing document, a photograph or image, a copy of the document should be saved as, or converted to, a PDF file. Generally it will be sufficient for emails to be provided in a PDF file.
 13. If the material is in an electronic format that cannot be conveniently saved as a PDF file, such as a database, a sound or video recording, it is appropriate for a copy of the document to be provided in the original electronic format. If the original format is not a current or common format then the Issuing party should also consider whether a copy in some other electronic format should also be asked for, so that it can be readily accessed by the parties and the Court.
 14. Electronic subpoena documents can be provided on a DVD, a CD or a USB device.
 15. Electronic subpoena documents can also be emailed to the Registry at supreme_court@courts.nsw.gov.au provided that a scanned copy of the subpoena is also attached to the email. The subject line of the email should state "Producing subpoenaed documents" and include the case name and number.
- ### Production of bulky or hazardous material
16. The party issuing subpoenas should limit the scope of each subpoena to material relevant to the proceedings. There will nevertheless be circumstances where a party legitimately issues a subpoena that will require the production of a large volume of material that cannot conveniently or inexpensively be produced in an electronic format.
 17. Except in circumstances where the Court has made specific directions and prior arrangements have been made (through supremecourt.subpoenaaccess@courts.nsw.gov.au), the Registry will decline to accept subpoenaed material that is:

- (a) not packed in standard document boxes;
 - (b) exceeds more than three standard size (Type 3) or six archive sized (Type 1) boxes in volume (or more than one upright trolley load); or
 - (c) in any way hazardous
18. If a Producing person or their agent attends the Registry to produce bulky or hazardous material without prior arrangements, that person will be directed to retain the material until the return date of the subpoena. Specific directions as to the custody of and access to the material will be made at the return date of the subpoena. In general, access will be given at the Producing person's place of business or wherever the material is normally stored. If the issuing party requires that the Producing person does not retain custody of the material or that the material should be stored at some alternate location this should be specified in the proposed access orders appearing on the issued subpoena or in any draft access orders submitted for consideration.
19. A Producing person producing bulky or hazardous material may comply with a subpoena by sending a letter to the Registry and providing a copy to the issuing party listing the material that they are producing and confirming that the Producing person will comply with any directions of the Court in relations to that material.
20. If an issuing party knows or expects that the material being subpoenaed will be bulky or hazardous they must bring these provisions of this Practice Note to the attention of the Producing person.

Accessing subpoenaed material produced in an electronic format

21. If an unrestricted order for access is made in relation to subpoena material that has been produced in an electronic format, then on application by a party entitled to access that material, an electronic copy of the material will be made and provided by the Registry.
22. The party applying for access should provide a blank DVD, CD or USB device onto which the copy can be made. In the alternative, upon request, the Registry may provide access to the material by sending an email attaching the material to the party applying for access.

Accessing subpoenaed documents produced in hard copy format

23. Access to documents produced under subpoena in a non-electronic format will continue to be provided under the procedure set out in Practice Note SC Gen 3.

Tendering subpoenaed material originally produced in an electronic format

24. If directions have not been made to allow the tendering of documents at the hearing in an electronic format, then it is the responsibility of the party intending to tender a document that was originally provided to the Registry in an electronic format to provide a printed copy of the document to the Court at the hearing, or to make arrangements for the relevant technology to be available so that the document can be viewed. This requirement may be achieved by including the document in a tender bundle.

Returning exhibits and produced documents

25. The UCPR (rules 31.16A and 33.10) require the Court to retain exhibits and subpoenaed material for specified time frames after the determination of the proceedings, unless the Court makes a specific order for the return of this material at an early date.
26. The Court's usual practice in relation to exhibits and subpoenaed material will now be an order when the proceedings are determined that the exhibits and subpoenaed material be returned forthwith. The Court will not retain this material, unless there is an order by the trial judge that it remains on the Court file.
27. When a subpoena is served, the Producing person is asked to complete a declaration stating whether the documents being produced are copies, and if so, acknowledging that they may be destroyed by the Court when they are no longer required. Subpoenaed documents in an electronic format (produced on a DVD, a CD or a USB device) that have been identified as copies, will not be returned to the Producing person and will be destroyed (or deleted) by the Registry unless the Producing person has specifically requested that they be returned.
28. In relation to any exhibits that are returned, those exhibits must be retained intact by the party, or person, that produced the material until the expiry of the time to file an appeal, or until any appeal has been determined. Solicitors should notify their clients of their obligations in relation to this material if it is returned to the clients. If an appeal is filed, the party or persons may be asked to produce the material to the Court of Appeal Registry for the purposes of the appeal, however, generally copies held by the appellant can be used for preparing the appeal books.

Extension of the effect of a Notice of Intention to Appeal

9. A Notice of Intention to Appeal has effect for six months from the date of lodgement. An Application for Extension of Time to Appeal may be lodged or sent by post or facsimile to the Registrar (Form VF in the Rules). Such Application should set out the reasons for extension, and identify any difficulties in the receipt or preparation of documents for the purposes of the intended appeal.

Lodging a Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for Leave to Appeal

10. If an appeal or an application for leave to appeal is to proceed, the original and at least three copies of the Notice of Appeal or the Notice of Application for Leave to Appeal (as the case may be) must be lodged at the Registry or sent by post to the Registrar. Either notice must be accompanied by the documents specified in Rule 23C of the Rules, namely, a Statement Nominating Legal Representation, the Grounds of Appeal, the Submissions in support of the Appeal, and a Certificate stating that all transcripts and exhibits are available from the Trial Court.
11. Where the effect of a Notice of Intention to Appeal has expired, an Application for Extension of Time to Appeal (Form V in the Rules) must be lodged with the Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for Leave to Appeal.
12. The Notice of Appeal or the Notice of Application for Leave to Appeal will be listed for callover before the Registrar at the earliest possible time with a view to fixing the first available hearing date.
13. In the case of urgent appeals, the Registrar may waive or adjust the requirements of Rule 23C.
14. If a decision is taken not to pursue an appeal or to seek leave to appeal after a Notice of Intention to Appeal has been lodged, no further documents need be sent to the Registrar; the effect of the Notice of Intention to Appeal will lapse after six months (or if the effect of a notice has been extended, after that further extension).
15. The overall effect of the giving of a Notice of Intention to Appeal is to facilitate the obtaining of necessary transcripts, exhibits and other documents so that a decision may be taken as to whether an Appeal or Application for Leave to Appeal should be instituted, and to ensure that, when instituted, all material is available to enable the expeditious listing and determination of the appeal or application.

Direction to file written submissions

16. The Registrar, when fixing a date for the hearing of an Appeal or an Application for Leave to Appeal, will direct the parties to file and serve written submissions on or before particular dates prior to the hearing. In appeals against conviction, or applications for leave to appeal against sentence, ordinarily the appellant's or applicant's submissions will have been filed with the Notice of Appeal or Notice of Application for Leave to Appeal, pursuant to clause 23C of the Rules.
17. The party filing written submissions shall lodge at least four copies of the submissions with the Registrar.

Email filing of written submissions

18. An electronic copy of submissions should be sent to the email address of the CCA (courtofcriminalappeal@courts.nsw.gov.au) three days before the hearing. This is in addition to the hard copy of the submissions that will have been previously filed at the Registry in accordance with the directions made by the Registrar at the callover.

Written submissions in an Appeal or Application for Leave to Appeal against Conviction

19. In an appeal against conviction, the submissions of both parties shall contain:
- a brief statement in narrative form of the Crown case and of the case raised or put forward by the appellant at the trial;

 - the terms of that ground of appeal set out in full;
 - page references to the transcript relating to any evidence referred to; and
 - appropriate citations of authority relied upon for the propositions of law stated (including, where appropriate, page references); and
 - a separate list of any authorities to which it is expected that the members of the Court may be referred during the argument.
20. In an appeal against conviction, the Crown shall file an index to the material evidence, a statement in summary form of the evidence of the material witnesses and a list of exhibits.

Written submissions in applications for Leave to Appeal against Sentence

21. In an application for leave to appeal against sentence, the applicant's submissions shall contain:
- a brief statement in narrative form of the Crown case which led to the conviction, but only where such case is not sufficiently apparent from the sentencing judge's remarks on sentence;
 - a statement of the particular objections to the sentence and to the reasons of the sentencing judge which are to be argued;
 - a brief statement of the argument as to why leave to appeal should be granted; and
 - a separate list of any authorities to which it is expected that the members of the Court may be referred during the argument.
22. The Crown need not file written submissions in relation to applications for leave to appeal against sentence, but it may do so, and it should do so if it is suggested that there is some significant error of fact or principle in the applicant's submissions.

Written submissions in a Crown appeal against Sentence

23. In a Crown appeal against sentence, the Crown's submissions shall contain:
- a brief statement in narrative form of the Crown case which led to the conviction, but only where such case is not sufficiently apparent from the sentencing judge's remarks on sentence;
 - a statement of the particular objections to the sentence and to the reasons of the sentencing judge which are to be argued;
 - a brief statement of the argument as to why the Court should interfere with the sentence imposed (including, if appropriate, details of the range of sentences imposed in other relevant cases);
 - details of when and how the respondent was notified of the Crown's intention to appeal; and
 - a separate list of any authorities to which it is expected that the members of the Court may be referred during the argument.
24. The respondent need not file written submissions in relation to Crown appeals, but may do so, and should do so if it is suggested that there is some significant error of fact or principle in the Crown's submissions.

Other Appeals which are not Rehearings

25. In cases stated for the determination of the Court and other proceedings in the nature of an appeal that is not a rehearing, the submissions of both parties are to contain:
- a brief statement in narrative form of the factual background against which the questions are raised for the determination of the Court, but only where that background is not sufficiently apparent from the stated case or from some other document already filed;
 - an outline of the argument to be put in support of each question for determination with:
 - the terms of that question set out in full;
 - page references to any transcript relating to any evidence referred to, and appropriate citations of authority relied upon for the propositions of law stated (including, where appropriate, page references); and
 - a separate list of any authorities to which it is expected that the members of the Court may be referred during the argument.

Appeals by way of Rehearing

26. In appeals that are to be heard by way of rehearing, the submissions of the appellant are to contain:
- a brief statement in narrative form of the prosecution case and of the case raised or put forward by the appellant at the trial;
 - a brief statement in narrative form of the facts which the appellant contends should have been found at first instance;
 - an outline of the argument to be put in relation to each ground of appeal with:
 - the terms of that ground of appeal set out in full;

- (e) page references to the transcript relating to any evidence referred to, and appropriate citations of authority relied upon for the propositions of law stated (including, where appropriate, page references);
 - (f) an index to the material evidence and a list of exhibits; and
 - (g) a separate list of any authorities to which it is expected that the members of the Court may be referred during the argument.
27. The submissions of the respondent are to contain:
- (a) a brief statement in narrative form of the prosecution case and of the case raised or put forward by the appellant at the trial;
 - (b) an outline of the argument to be put in opposition to the appeal, with page references to the transcript relating to any evidence referred to and with appropriate citations of authority for the propositions of law stated (including, where appropriate, page references); and
 - (c) a separate list of any authorities to which it is expected that the members of the Court may be referred during the argument.

Other Applications

28. In other applications, the submissions of the applicant shall contain:
- (a) a brief statement in narrative form of the factual background against which the application is to be determined by the Court, in sufficient detail as to permit the application to be heard by the Court without the need to read any other material;
 - (b) a statement as to the orders sought and (if expected that it will be of assistance to the Court) a brief outline of the argument to be put relating to each such order; and
 - (c) a separate list of any authorities to which it is expected that the members of the Court may be referred during the argument.
29. The respondent need not file written submissions in relation to such applications, but should do so where it is expected that they will be of assistance to the Court.

List of Authorities

30. Authorities cited in submissions that are not likely to be needed in Court should not be included in a list of authorities. The list should only include authorities to which it is expected the Court will be referred during the argument.
31. Where reliance is to be placed on an authority that is unreported, the party citing that authority shall attach a copy of the unreported judgment to the list of authorities. An authority published on Caselaw with a case neutral citation is not considered by the Court to be a reported judgment.
32. Lists of authorities need not be filed at the same time as the written submissions but must be filed not later than one full working day before the hearing.

Email filing of List of Authorities

33. Lists of authorities and unreported judgments may be sent to the email address of the CCA (courtofcriminalappeal@courts.nsw.gov.au) by no later than 10:00 am on the day before the hearing. The parties are not required to file a hard copy of that material if it has been sent by email.

Drop off box for non-urgent CCA filings

34. A drop off box is available in the Supreme Court Registry, Level 5, for non-urgent CCA filings, for use as follows:
- (a) the material is to be placed in a sealed envelope so that it is secure and cannot be mingled with other possible loose material in the box;
 - (b) at least four copies of any document to be filed are to be provided;
 - (c) the envelope must be clearly marked with the matter name, the CCA file number, and the contact name and telephone number of the filing party;
 - (d) the material is in regard to matters that are not listed before the Court within two clear working days of the lodgement of the material in the box – eg, if a case is listed before the Court on a Monday, the last day for lodgement of any material is close of business Wednesday;
 - (e) applications for interlocutory appeals and bail review must be filed at the counter, and not by way of the drop off box;
 - (f) material for the commencement of new matters must not be lodged in the drop off box, it must be filed at the counter; and
 - (g) sealed copies of the filed material will be placed in each filer's satchel or in an envelope for collection upon request by 10:00 am the following day.

Interlocutory Appeals

35. Interlocutory appeals will be heard by the Court as expeditiously as possible. Appellants at the first callover must be ready to take a date for hearing, particularly where a pending appeal may have an effect on a trial pending or due to start. The parties will be expected to supply written submissions within a short timeframe.
36. Appeals will not be adjourned on the basis of the appellant obtaining a "merits advice" from the Legal Aid Commission of New South Wales.
37. Where an interlocutory appeal is urgent, the appellant should contact the Registrar and inform the Registrar of a realistic time estimate, together with the availability of counsel for all parties. The Registrar will determine the urgency of the matter and will make suitable arrangements for the listing of the interlocutory appeal. Counsel's availability will not be a factor in determining the hearing date.

Interlocutory appeals against the discharge of a jury

38. Where a trial judge proposes to discharge a jury, a party may ask the judge to delay the making of the order pending the filing of an Application for Leave to Appeal.
39. The Court will hear any application against a decision to discharge a jury on an urgent basis. Counsel's availability will not be a factor in determining the hearing date.

OR

- c) the Schedule B Participant has business assets and the benefit of an insurance policy insuring the Schedule B Participant against that occupational liability, and the net current market value of the assets and the amount payable under the insurance policy in respect of the occupational liability relating to that claim (including any amount payable by the Schedule B Participant by way of excess under or in relation to the policy), if combined, would total an amount that is not less than the amount of the Category 3 monetary ceiling or Category 3 limitation amount.

3.15 The Category 3 monetary ceiling applicable to Schedule B Participants is $20 million.

3.16 The Category 3 limitation amount is an amount equal to a reasonable charge for the Category 3 services provided by the Schedule B Participant or which the Schedule B Participant failed to provide and to which the claim relates, multiplied by the multiplier specified in sub-clause 3.16 (b) below.

- (a) In determining the amount of a reasonable charge a court is to have regard to any amount actually charged and to:
- (i) the amount that would ordinarily be charged in accordance with a scale of charges prescribed or accepted by the Institute; or
- (ii) if there is no such scale, the amount that a competent person of the same qualifications and experience as the Schedule B Participant would be likely to charge in the same circumstances.

- (b) The multiplier is 10.

GENERAL

3.17 Pursuant to section 24 (1) (b) of the Act, this Scheme confers on the Institute a discretionary authority to specify, on application by a Participant, a higher maximum amount of liability not exceeding $75 million than would otherwise apply under the scheme in respect of any specified case or class of case of Category 2 services or Category 3 services, where the fee for the service or services is, or is reasonably expected to be, $2 million or greater. The higher maximum amount of liability will apply if the Institute exercises its discretion and approves the higher maximum amount of liability prior to the Participant beginning to provide the relevant services.

3.18 Nothing in this Scheme is intended to increase, or has the effect of increasing, a Participant's liability for damages to a person beyond the amount that, other than for the existence of this Scheme, the Participant would be liable in law.

3.19 This Scheme only limits the amount of damages for which a Participant is liable if and to the extent that the damages exceed the applicable amount specified in clause 3.1. Where the amount of damages in relation to a claim exceeds the applicable amount specified in clause 3.1 but the damages which may be awarded as determined by this Scheme are equal to or less than the applicable amount specified in clause 3.1, liability for those damages will instead be limited to the applicable amount specified in clause 3.1.
