CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

Order Under Section 12

Administrative Scheme Relating to the Henry Salkauskas Art (Purchase) Award

SECTION 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 allows the Attorney General to, by order, establish a scheme for the administration of any charitable trust.

The Henry Salkauskas Art (Purchase) Award (Trust) ('the Trust') is an inter-vivos trust established to maintain a fund to facilitate the purchase, by the Trustees of the Art Gallery of New South Wales (AGNSW) of an Australian contemporary art work for addition to the permanent exhibited collection of the AGNSW, for the purpose of honouring the memory of the late Henry Salkauskas. A sum of $30,000 was transferred by the grantor, Ona-Ana Salkauskas, to the Trustees of the AGNSW to be held on trust.

The Trustees claimed that there were now insufficient funds to generate sufficient income to fund the purchase of suitable art works. The AGNSW seeks to have the Trust wound up and the funds transferred to the Art Gallery New South Wales Trust ('Art Gallery Trust') to be contributed to a fund within the Art Gallery Trust to purchase or contribute to the purchase of an Australian contemporary artwork. As at 27 October 2011, the Trust had the sum of $34,692.47 in capital and the sum of $3,389.41 described by the AGNSW as 'expendable', presumably income.

Section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 allows the Attorney General to, by order, establish a scheme for the administration of any charitable trust. Section 12 (1) (b) provides that the Attorney General may 'establish a scheme to extend or vary the powers of the trustees of a charitable trust or prescribe or vary the manner or mode of administration of a charitable trust, either generally or in a particular case, if it appears to the Attorney General that it is expedient to do so in the interests of the administration of the charitable trust ...'.

I have formed the view that the Henry Salkauskas Art (Purchase) Award (Trust) is a trust for a valid charitable purpose, being a gift either for the 'advancement of education' or 'other purposes beneficial to the community'. I consider it appropriate that a scheme be implemented which will vary the manner or mode of administration of the Trust by permitting the use of the capital and income to purchase from time to time until the fund is dissipated an Australian contemporary art work for the AGNSW's permanent collection.

Therefore, pursuant to section 12 (1) (b) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993, I hereby order that a scheme be implemented allowing the use of the capital and income of the Henry Salkauskas Art (Purchase) Award (Trust) to purchase, from time to time until the funds are dissipated, for the AGNSW's permanent collection, an Australian contemporary art work. The purchase to be clearly named and labelled "Henry Salkauskas Art (Purchase) Award (year acquired)."

This Order will take effect 21 days after its publication in the NSW Government Gazette, in accordance with section 16 (2) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

Date of Order: 24 January 2013.

CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

Order Under Section 12

Administrative Scheme Relating to the Robert Le Gay Brereton Memorial Prize Fund

BY deed dated 4 May 1954, executed by the 'founders', Geoffrey Le Gay Brereton, Beryl Armstrong and John Le Gay Brereton, and the Trustees of the Art Gallery of New South Wales (AGNSW), the Trustees of the AGNSW were named the Trustees of the Robert Le Gay Brereton Memorial Prize Fund. The Trust was established to promote the study of the art of draughtsmanship and to fund a prize in memory of Robert Le Gay Brereton, a serviceman killed during war service in World War II.

As at 30 September 2011 the Trust was comprised of $6,372.22 in capital and $5,457.41 described as expendable (presumably income). Since 2002 the value of the prize has been $800, reduced from $1200 in 1988. The trust only permits the income and not capital to be used for the prize.

The AGNSW sought to have the funds applied cy-pres because it believed that the objects of the trust have failed. The prize was first awarded in 1955 and, according to the AGNSW, the prize has received a low level of interest for most of its existence. The number of entrants has remained below 10 since 2003, with some years the number being 5 or less. The prize was last awarded in 2010. In 2011 there was only one entrant who did not meet the required standard, so no award was made. The prize was not awarded for the same reasons in 1976, 1986 and 2007.

The AGNSW has tried a number of things to increase the level of interest in the prize and now seeks to have the Trust wound up and the funds transferred to a specific fund within the AGNSW Trust to be administered by the AGNSW's Public Program Department.

Section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 allows the Attorney General to, by order, establish a scheme for the administration of any charitable trust, such as the Le Gay Brereton Trust. Section 12 (1) (b) provides that the Attorney General may 'establish a scheme to extend or vary the powers of the trustees of a charitable trust or prescribe or vary the manner or mode of administration of a charitable trust, either generally or in a particular case, if it appears to the Attorney General that it is expedient to do so in the interests of the administration of the charitable trust ...’.

I am satisfied that the Robert Le Gay Brereton Memorial Prize is a trust for a valid charitable purpose and that this is an appropriate instance for the establishment of an administrative, rather than cy près, scheme.

Accordingly, as delegate of the Attorney General I order that an administrative scheme be established pursuant to section 12 (1) (b) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 to allow for the use of the capital and income of the Trust to continue funding the Robert Le Gay Brereton Memorial Prize until the fund is dissipated.

This Order will take effect 21 days after its publication in the NSW Government Gazette, in accordance with section 16 (2) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

Date of Order: 24 January 2013.

CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

Notice Under Section 15

Proposed Administrative Scheme Relating to UTS Law Alumni Foundation

THE trustees of the UTS Law Alumni Foundation Fund (‘the Trust’), which was established to benefit law students at University of Technology, Sydney (‘UTS’), asked the Attorney General to establish a scheme, under the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 (‘CTA’), to allow them to transfer the administration of the trust, including a number of scholarships awarded by it, to the UTS Foundation (‘the Foundation’).

The Foundation is an internal unit of the UTS, governed by the UTS Council, which fund raises for UTS generally. It is intended that UTS, which is a statutory corporation established under the University of Technology Sydney Act 1993 (‘the UTS Act’), will replace the current trustee (Board of Trustees) and that the Council of the University, which is the organ of governance of UTS under the UTS Act, will exercise the powers and responsibilities of UTS as trustee. As at 31 December 2011, the total value of all the funds managed by the Trust was $255,041.20.

The reason for the transfer is said to be that it will provide the Trust with the benefit of the Foundation’s resources, fund raising expertise and economies of scale, including removing the separate deductible gift recipient reporting and audit obligations. It will also align the Trust with the Foundation, rather than continuing to operate potentially in conflict with it, as it currently does.

It appears to be expedient to transfer its administration to the Foundation, provided that separate ledgers are maintained for the general trust and the scholarship trusts which are administered by the Trust. This would permit the Foundation to combine the management and administration of the Trust with that of the Foundation, to use common premises, employ common staff in the administration of the trusts and to pool the trust property for the purpose of investment.

The Attorney General has determined that the UTS Law Alumni Foundation Fund is a trust for charitable purposes, being for the advancement of education. Section 12(b) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 provides that the Attorney General may establish a scheme:

“to extend or vary the powers of trustees of a charitable trust or prescribe or vary the manner or mode of administration of any charitable trust, either generally or in a particular case, if it appears to the Attorney General that it is expedient to do so in the interests of the administration of the charitable trust”

Accordingly, the Attorney General has approved of the establishment of an administrative scheme pursuant to section 12 (1) (b) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 to allow for:

1. the appointment of the University of Technology, Sydney as the trustee of the Trust, vesting in the University all the assets of the Trust;
2. the University of Technology, Sydney to use premises and staff of the University in administering, and raising funds for, the Trust; and
3. the University of Technology, Sydney to:
 - (a) use common premises;
 - (b) employ common staff;
 - (c) pool Trust property for the purpose of investment;
 - (d) combine administrative functions
 with the University of Technology, Sydney Foundation, provided that the Trust funds are separately.

Take note that within one month after the publication of this notice any person may make representations or suggestions to the Attorney General in respect of the proposed scheme. Enquiries may be made to (02) 9224 5274.
