

Government Gazette

of the State of

New South Wales

Number 86

Friday, 2 August 2019

The New South Wales Government Gazette is the permanent public record of official NSW Government notices. It also contains local council, private and other notices.

From 1 January 2019, each notice in the Government Gazette has a unique identifier that appears in round brackets at the end of the notice and that can be used as a reference for that notice (for example, (n2019-14)).

The Gazette is compiled by the Parliamentary Counsel's Office and published on the NSW legislation website (www.legislation.nsw.gov.au) under the authority of the NSW Government. The website contains a permanent archive of past Gazettes.

To submit a notice for gazettal – see Gazette Information.

1.2 Headings

Headings do not affect the interpretation of this easement.

1.3 Rules of Interpretation

In this easement, and unless the context indicates a contrary intention:

- (a) an obligation or liability assumed by, or a right conferred on, two or more persons including two or more Grantors binds or benefits them jointly and severally;
- (b) a reference to a person includes an individual, the estate of an individual, a corporation, an authority, an association or a joint venture (whether incorporated or unincorporated), a partnership and a trust;
- (c) a reference to this easement, to a document or to any other easement (including any approval) is to this easement, that document or that other easement (as the case may be) as amended, modified, varied, novated, ratified or replaced from time to time;
- (d) a word importing the singular includes the plural (and vice versa), and a word indicating a gender includes every other gender;
- (e) a reference to a clause is a reference to a clause of this easement;
- (f) if a word or phrase is given a defined meaning, any other part of speech or grammatical form of that word or phrase has a corresponding meaning;
- (g) "includes" in any form is not a word of limitation;
- (h) one provision of this easement does not limit the effect of another; and
- (i) if at any time any provision of this easement is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any respect under the law of any jurisdiction, that will not affect or impair:
 - (i) the legality, validity or enforceability in that jurisdiction of any other provision of this easement; or
 - (ii) the legality, validity or enforceability under the law of any other jurisdiction of that or any other provision of this easement.

1.4 Positive covenants and maintenance requirements

A requirement in an easement which requires a Grantee or Grantor to maintain or repair an Easement Site or anything in an Easement Site is a positive covenant according to Section 88BA of the Conveyancing Act 1919 (NSW).

1.5 No derogation of statutory rights

The rights granted to the Grantor or the Grantee under this easement do not derogate from any statutory right that Sydney Metro or a Member of the Rail Family may have from time to time.

2. Easements are covenants and agreements between Grantees and Grantors

2.1 Run with Land

The conditions, covenants and restrictions, including in this clause 2, in each of the easements are covenants and agreements between:

- (a) each Grantee for itself and its successors, assigns and transferees; and
- (b) each Grantor for itself, its successors and every person who is entitled to an estate or interest in possession of the Lot Burdened or any part of it with which the right is capable of enjoyment, to the intent that the benefit and burden of those covenants and agreements are annexed to and pass with the benefits and burdens of the easements, positive covenants and restrictions on use.

2.2 Ancillary Rights

The Grantee of an easement set out in this easement may exercise, subject to the specific terms of that easement, all other ancillary rights and obligations reasonably necessary for the effective application of an easement including reasonable access to the Easement Site. In exercising ancillary rights under an easement, the Grantee must cause as little inconvenience as practicable to the Grantor or any occupier of the Lot Burdened.

3. Terms of Easement for Access

3.1 Grant of easement

The Grantor grants the Grantee, its successors and assigns and all Authorised Users the right:

- (a) to full, free and unimpeded right to, by any means, to enter upon, pass and repass over the Lot Burdened at any time together with any Equipment for any purpose including to access, inspect, maintain, repair, alter, operate and replace the Rail Infrastructure provided that the Grantee and its Authorised Users use the most direct and accessible route to and from the Rail Infrastructure; and
- (b) to remain on the Lot Burdened for a reasonable time for such purposes, on the following conditions:
- (c) the Grantee must take all reasonable precautions to ensure as little disturbance or damage as possible to the Lot Burdened and will as soon as reasonably practicable restore the Lot Burdened as nearly as practicable to its original condition;
- (d) before the Grantee may enter the Lot Burdened to exercise the rights granted by this easement, it must, except in the case of an emergency, first give a reasonable period of notice to the Grantor of the intended exercise of the rights and comply with the reasonable requirements of the Grantor;
- (e) except in the case of an emergency, before incurring any Costs in rectification of any damage occasioned by the exercise of its rights, the Grantor must notify the Grantee in writing of any damage occasioned as a result of such exercise and, in the case of remediable damage, give the Grantee a reasonable period to rectify that damage;
- (f) if any proposed development or other activity to be carried out by the Grantor on the Lot Burdened will:
 - (iii) impact or affect the Grantee's use of, or interest in, the Lot Burdened;
or
 - (iv) result in the Lot Burdened being inaccessible or substantially inaccessible by the Grantee, the Grantee may make an objection to the development or other activity and withhold its consent (which may be withheld in its absolute discretion).

3.2 No restriction on access

The Grantor for itself and its successors and assigns covenants with the Grantee and its successors and assigns that the Grantor will not, without the prior written approval of the Grantee, permit, allow or cause:

- (a) the access granted to the Grantee, its successors and assigns and Authorised Users over the Lot Burdened and to or from any land adjoining the Lot Burdened pursuant to this easement to be restricted in any way; and
- (b) anything to be done or omitted to be done which would prevent or prejudice the Grantee and its Authorised Users exercising the rights granted to the Grantee pursuant to this easement.

3.3 Restriction on development affecting access

On and from the date of registration of the instrument creating this easement:

- (a) The Grantor for itself and its successors and assigns covenants with the Grantee and its successors and assigns that the Grantor must not, without the prior written approval of the Grantee, permit, allow or cause the Burdened Lot to be developed in any way so as to prevent, restrict, reduce or prejudice the Grantee or its Authorised Users exercising the rights granted to the Grantee pursuant to this easement.
- (b) Before the Grantor may develop the Lot Burdened, the Grantor must give written notice of its proposed development to the Grantee with sufficient detail of the proposed development (including plans and specifications of the proposed development which demonstrate how the rights of the Grantee under this easement can continue to be exercised) to enable the Grantee to consider whether to approve or reject the proposed development.
- (c) Without limiting the Grantee's rights in clause 3.3(b), the Grantor must obtain the Grantee's approval under this clause:
 - (i) before the Grantor lodges a development application or applies for a complying certificate in respect of any development within the Easement Site, or applies for a modification of any development consent or approval that applies to the Easement Site; and
 - (ii) to the terms of consent to any such development application or consent to an application to modify such development consent (including plans and specifications referred to in such consents).
- (d) The Grantor's consent to the proposed development will not be unreasonably withheld if the proposed development would not prevent, restrict, reduce or prejudice the exercise by the Grantee or its Authorised Users of the Grantee's rights under this easement.
- (e) The Grantee's consent under this clause may be granted subject to conditions including for the purpose of minimising any adverse effect on the rights of access granted to the Grantee and its Authorised Users under this easement, and any failure or omission to comply with those conditions in carrying out the proposed development will constitute a breach of this clause.

3.4 Restriction on vegetation affecting access

Without limitation to clause 3.2, the Grantor for itself and its successors and assigns covenants with the Grantee and its successors and assigns that the Grantor must not, without the prior written approval of the Grantee:

- (a) allow any vegetation on the Lot Burdened within the area of 6 metres from the outer edge of the Grantee's Rail Infrastructure other than grass or small shrubs, which shrubs are no higher than 2 metres above natural ground level;
- (b) allow, at all times and without limiting paragraph (a), any vegetation within the Lot Burdened of a height more than the distance of the vegetation to the Railway Infrastructure such that there is a risk the vegetation will fall onto the Rail Infrastructure;
- (c) allow any vegetation on the Lot Burdened which prevents, restricts, reduces or prejudices the exercise by the Grantee or its Authorised Users of the Grantee's rights under this easement, and
- (d) the Grantor will immediately rectify, maintain and prune, at its cost, vegetation on the Lot Burdened so that it at all times complies with this clause 3.4

If the Grantor breaches this clause 3.4, the Grantee or its Authorised Users may, without notice to the Grantor, access the Lot Burdened, with all necessary Equipment, to carry out the necessary works (at the cost of the Grantor) to rectify the Grantor's breach.

3.5 Right to Release

The Grantee is empowered to release, vary or modify this easement.

3.6 No Implied Terms

The rights and obligations implied under Schedule 4A of the Conveyancing Act 1919 do not apply to this easement.

4. Terms of Easement for Electrolysis

4.1 Easement for electrolysis

- (a) The Grantor grants to the Grantee, its successors and assigns, any Member of the Rail Family and all Authorised Users, the right to cause stray electrical currents originating from or in any way connected to its Operations in the Rail Corridor to pass across, above, through or under the Lot Burdened.
- (b) For the benefit of the right granted to the Grantee, the Grantor covenants with the Grantee its successors and assigns, any Member of the Rail Family and all Authorised Users as follows:
 - (i) to waive all rights and remedies which it might otherwise have had against the Grantee, its successors and assigns, any Member of the Rail Family and all Authorised Users, arising out of the exercise of rights under this easement; and
 - (ii) to indemnify the Grantee, its successors and assigns, any Member of the Rail Family and all Authorised Users, against any demand, claim, suit or proceedings which might be made against the Grantee, its successors and assigns and all Authorised Users by any tenant, occupier or user of the Lot Burdened, or any person, including any person claiming through the Grantor or any tenant, occupier or user of the Lot Burdened, arising out of its exercising its rights under this easement.

4.2 Right to Release

The Grantee is empowered to release vary or modify this easement.

5. Terms of Easement for Drainage

5.1 Easement to Drain Water

The Grantor grants to the Grantee, its successors and assigns and all Authorised Users the right to:

- (a) use the Lot Burdened for the drainage of water;
- (b) use, for the purposes of this easement, any line of pipes already laid within the Lot Burdened for the drainage of water or any pipe or pipes in replacement, substitution or alteration of that line of pipes;
- (c) drain water through the aforesaid line of pipes into and out of the Drainage Pit and across the Lot Burdened to any road or waterway adjacent to the Lot Burdened; and
- (d) do anything reasonably necessary for that purpose including:
 - (i) entering the Lot Burdened;
 - (ii) using any Apparatus through, within, under or above the Lot Burdened; and
 - (iii) carrying out work, such as constructing, placing, inspecting, testing, repairing, replacing, altering, cleaning or maintaining the Apparatus including relocating the Apparatus to a different location within the Lot Burdened, provided the Grantee and its Authorised Users cause as little inconvenience as is practicable to the Grantor, make good any collateral damage and restore the Lot Burdened as nearly as practicable to its original condition.

5.2 Grantor right to relocate Apparatus

The Grantor may from time to time relocate the Apparatus, at its cost, provided that:

- (a) the Grantor gives to the Grantee at least 7 days prior written notice of the proposed relocation of Apparatus including details of the new location and specifications of the relocated line or pipes;
- (b) in relocating the Apparatus, the Grantor does not interfere with the Grantee's drainage of water across the Lot Burdened into and out of the Drainage Pit and to the adjoining road or waterway;
- (c) the Grantor maintains:
 - (i) a system of drainage of water from the Benefitted Lot to the Drainage Pit and from the Drainage Pit to an adjacent road or waterway of a standard and capacity equivalent to the standard and capacity of the line of pipes which previously existed; and

- (ii) the Drainage Pit on the Lot Burdened, at all times to a standard and capacity capable of holding and draining the water draining from the Lot Benefitted.

5.3 Right to Release

The Grantee is empowered to release vary or modify this easement.

5.4 No Implied Terms

The rights and obligations implied under Schedule 4A of the Conveyancing Act 1919 do not apply to this easement.

6. Terms of Easement for Support and Shelter

6.1 Easement for support and shelter

The Grantor grants the Grantee the right for the Lot Benefitted to be supported by the Lot Burdened to the extent that the Lot Benefitted derives support and shelter from the Lot Burdened.

6.2 Obligations of the Grantor

The Grantor must maintain the support to that part of the Lot Burdened which is capable of affording support to the Lot Benefitted at all times.

6.3 Right to Release

The Grantee is empowered to release vary or modify this easement.
