CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993
ORDER UNDER SECTION 12
CY PRES SCHEME RELATING TO
THE ESTATE OF THE LATE FLORENCE HELEN DUNN

Section 9(1) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 permits the application of property cy pres where the spirit of the original trust can no longer be implemented.

Under clause 4(r) of the Will of the late Florence Helen Dunn, which was executed on 2 March 2016, Ms Dunn bequeathed the residue of her estate to the Sydney Anglican Home Mission Society Council ('the Council') trading as (Anglicare) Respite Care for the purpose of the Kingsdene Respite Cottages ('the Cottages'). The bequest has an estimated value of $498,000.00.

The Council ceased to exist after the execution of the testatrix's Will. The Cottages ceased to exist when Anglican Community Services trading as Anglicare Sydney ceased management of the Cottages. A gift to an institution that has ceased to exist, but which manifests a general charitable intention, may be applied, cy pres, in a manner which most nearly approximates the charitable purpose of the donor.

Anglicare Sydney's Out of Home Care Respite program has been identified as the service whose charitable activities most closely align with the charitable purpose of the testator. The Program provides services for the benefit of carers and families of young persons with disabilities and in difficult caring situations. The Program provides a respite service that aims to offer parents and guardians of high needs children a break from daily demands.

The executor of the estate has no objection to a cy pres scheme applying the funds to Anglicare Sydney's Out of Home Care Respite program.

This is an appropriate matter in which the Attorney General should approve a cy pres scheme under section 12(1)(a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.

I have previously approved a recommendation that the Attorney General establish a cy pres scheme which would permit these charitable funds to be applied in a manner as close as possible to the original purposes of the trust.

Pursuant to section 12 of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993, I hereby order that the bequest by the Estate of the late Ms Florence Helen Dunn to the Council for the purpose of the Cottages is to be applied to Anglicare Sydney's Out of Home Care Respite program.

The order will take effect 21 days after its publication in the Government Gazette, in accordance with section 16(2) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993.
