All-up bets or bets involving two or more contingencies may be made across different declared betting events.

- 4.3.2 Authorised betting event bookmakers are not required to accept declared betting event bets or quote prices on all potential outcomes or contingencies within a declared betting event or a form of betting on a declared betting event.
- 4.3.3 Authorised betting event bookmakers may, in their sole and absolute discretion, elect to accept declared betting event bets or quote prices on only some of the potential outcomes or contingencies within a declared betting event or a form of betting on a declared betting event. All declared betting event bets stand regardless of whether or not, at the time the relevant declared betting event bet was made or at any time prior or subsequent time, the authorised betting event bookmaker accepted, or was prepared to accept, bets or quoted prices on the outcome or contingency which ultimately occurred.
- 4.3.4 If an authorised betting event bookmaker elects not to list all potential outcomes or contingencies within a form of betting on a declared betting event, the authorised betting event bookmaker must clearly state that quotes are available on request for the remaining potential outcomes. Authorised betting event bookmakers must clearly and specifically state on price display screens that outcomes not listed may be successful.
- 4.3.5 Authorised betting event bookmakers may, in their absolute and sole discretion, at any time prior to the close of betting and without notification or reason:

A contingency for any eSport game will/may be disallowed where betting on that contingency, due to the nature of the game being played, becomes micro-betting.

Micro-betting involves the placement of bets having the following characteristics and circumstances:

- a) the placing, making, receiving or the acceptance of bets on particular events occurs during a session of a match or game
- b) the betting opportunity is repetitive, of a high frequency and is part of a structured component of the match or game (for example, point-by-point betting in a game of Counter Strike or Call of Duty)
- c) a bet is placed on one of a limited number of outcomes, although the number of possible outcomes may be more than two (for example, whether a shot or pass in a game of NBA 2K or Rocket League will miss)
- d) the time between placing a bet and knowing the outcome is very short (usually less than five minutes, excepting appeals, intervals and interruptions).

5. DETERMINATION OF RESULTS

5.1 General

Where the phrase “unless agreed otherwise by the authorised betting event bookmaker and customer at the time of making the declared betting event bet” appears in part 5 herein, the term “authorised betting event bookmaker” vicariously includes staff or agents of the authorised betting event bookmaker held out as being duly authorised.

5.1.1 All-in Basis

All declared betting event bets are made on an All-in basis except where:

- (a) some other basis is expressly and specifically agreed between a duly authorised officer of the authorised betting event bookmaker and the customer at the time of making the relevant declared betting event bet; or
- (b) an additional proviso applied by an Authorised betting event bookmakers to the relevant declared betting event bet in accordance with clause 1.4 expressly and specifically that the declared betting event bet is not made on an All-in Basis.

5.1.2 Determination of result

Unless agreed otherwise by the authorised betting event bookmaker and customer at the time of making the declared betting event bet, the final result shall take into account any extra time periods or match replay or any other contingency necessary to determine the winner. This clause is subject to clause 5.1.7 herein.

5.1.3 Line betting (points start)

Unless agreed otherwise by the authorised betting event bookmaker and customer at the time of making the declared betting event bet, where betting on the outcome of a declared betting event involves a points start (eg line betting on a particular match) such points start shall be set to half a point.

For the purposes of this clause, in the case of declared betting event bets involving a points start, the outcome of each declared betting event shall be determined including any extra time, replay or other contingency necessary to determine the official result, unless agreed otherwise by the authorised betting event bookmaker and customer at the time of making the declared betting event bet. This clause is subject to clause 5.1.6 and any declared betting event specific clauses in part 5.2 herein, where applicable.

5.1.4 Right of bookmaker to cease betting

An authorised betting event bookmaker may, at his or her sole and absolute discretion, cease or suspend betting on any declared betting event without reason or notification. All declared betting event bets accepted prior to the cessation or suspension of betting will be treated in accordance with these Rules.

5.1.5 Amount of Payout

The payout payable on any declared betting event bet shall be as agreed between an authorised betting event bookmaker and customer at the time of making the declared betting event bet. The payout quoted in telephone or electronic communications between the authorised betting event bookmaker and customer shall be deemed to be the payout agreed between the authorised betting event bookmaker and the customer, except in the case of error resulting from computer or other technical malfunction or where there is evidence of fraud.

If an authorised betting event bookmaker or customer becomes aware of such an error (or other event contemplated in this clause) prior to the conclusion of the relevant declared betting event(s), the authorised betting event bookmaker or customer is to use their best endeavours to notify the other party immediately and seek to have the matter resolved.

5.1.6 Postponement of a declared betting event

Where a declared betting event is postponed or is listed for replay and is not officially scheduled to be replayed or conducted within three (3) calendar days of the original scheduled completion date, the declared betting event shall be treated as abandoned and all declared betting event bets shall be refunded. This clause is subject to any declared betting event specific clauses in part 5.2 herein, where applicable.

5.1.7 Prices offered for tie, etc

This clause applies where a declared betting event results in a tie, draw or dead heat and prices are offered (within the relevant declared betting event betting market) on that declared betting event for a tie, draw or dead heat by the authorised betting event bookmaker with whom the declared betting event bet was made. In these circumstances, the outcome of the declared betting event shall be determined excluding any extra time, replay or other contingency necessary to determine an official result and any declared betting event bet for a result other than a tie, draw or dead heat will be deemed to have lost.

5.1.8 Prices not offered for tie, etc

Unless agreed otherwise by the authorised betting event bookmaker and customer at the time of making the declared betting event bet, if the result of a declared betting event is determined with joint winners or placegetters and a tie, draw or dead heat is not a form of betting offered (within the relevant declared betting event betting market) on that declared betting event by the authorised betting event bookmaker with whom the declared betting event bet was made, the revised payout payable shall be calculated by the following method:

- (i) divide the face value of the declared betting event betting ticket (the original payout) by the number of competitors involved in the tie, draw or dead heat, then
- (ii) multiply the figure obtained in 5.1.8 (i) by the number of official placings to be filled by the competitors figuring in the tie, draw or dead heat.

5.1.9 Multiple bets and tie, etc

Unless agreed otherwise by the authorised betting event bookmaker and customer at the time of making the declared betting event bet, and subject to clauses 5.1.7 and 5.1.8, in declared betting event bets involving more than one contingency or declared betting event:

- (a) if the selection in any of the contingencies or declared betting events loses, or is deemed to have lost, the whole of the declared betting event bet is lost;
- (b) if one or more of the contingencies or declared betting events results in a tie, draw or dead heat, the revised return for each leg shall be calculated by applying the method set out in clause 5.1.8 herein and the revised payout payable shall be the amount obtained as the product of the cumulative price applicable and the original stake;
- (c) where the declared betting event bet covers two or more declared betting events and one or more declared betting events is decided in the customer's favour but any remaining declared betting event is subsequently postponed and not officially scheduled to be replayed or conducted within three (3) calendar days of the original scheduled date, or any remaining declared betting event is abandoned, the revised payout shall be the amount obtained as the product of the cumulative price applicable (at the time the declared betting event bet was made) to the declared betting events decided in the customer's favour and the original stake.

5.1.10 Cancellation of declared betting event prior to commencement

Subject to clause 5.1.9 (c), if any declared betting event is cancelled prior to its commencement, or abandoned, all declared betting event bets relating to that declared betting event shall be refunded.

5.1.11 Reliance on official or podium positions

Unless agreed otherwise by the authorised betting event bookmaker and customer at the time of making the declared betting event bet, all declared betting event bets will be settled on the official or podium positions as per the adjudication of the relevant recognised governing body. Subsequent disqualification, promotion of competitors, or any other change is irrelevant for the purposes of determining the result of a declared betting event bet.

5.1.12 Scratchings where declared betting event subsequently postponed

Where a declared betting event bet is made on a competitor or team in a declared betting event and that competitor or team is scratched, withdrawn or disqualified from that event, and notwithstanding that event is subsequently postponed and unable to be replayed or conducted within three (3) calendar days, the bet shall stand and no refund will be payable.

5.1.13 Declared betting event bets placed after completion of relevant declared betting event

Any declared betting event bet placed after the completion of the declared betting event to which it relates is deemed void and is to be refunded to the customer. If this circumstance arises in the context of one or more legs of a multiple declared betting event bet, only the effected leg(s) of the declared betting event bet are deemed void.

5.1.14 Change of venue of declared betting event

Unless agreed otherwise by the authorised betting event bookmaker and customer at the time of making the declared betting event bet, in the event of a change to the venue of a declared betting event involving named competitors, all declared betting event bets relating to that event are deemed void and are to be refunded. If this circumstance arises in the context of one or more legs of a multiple declared betting event bet, only the affected leg(s) of the declared betting event bet is deemed void.

5.1.15 Payment of payouts for "outcomes not quoted"

For the payment of payouts, the "outcomes not quoted" selection is considered to be a single competitor, and accordingly can only be paid the equivalent of one payout, irrespective of the number of "outcomes not quoted" that would have achieved a payout if they were players that had prices quoted.

5.2 DECLARED EVENTS SPECIFIC

Unless agreed otherwise by the authorised betting event bookmaker and customer at the time of making the declared betting event bet, the clauses below apply to all declared betting event bets on the relevant sport or event. In determining the result of a declared betting event bet, if any inconsistency arises between a clause in part 5.2 relating to the sport or event on which the declared betting event bet was placed and a clause elsewhere in these Rules, the sport or event specific clause in part 5.2 prevails to the extent of any inconsistency.

5.2.1 Boxing

5.2.1.1 Where a contest is postponed (to the calendar day following or later) or a contestant is replaced by a substitute, such contest is deemed to be abandoned and all declared betting event bets are to be refunded.

5.2.1.2 Where, for any reason, the scheduled number of rounds in a contest is altered, all declared betting event bets on that contest are deemed void and are to be refunded.

5.2.1.3 Where, for any reason, a points decision is awarded before the full number of rounds is completed, declared betting event bets will be settled on the round in which the fight was stopped.

5.2.1.4 If a boxer fails to “answer the bell” signalling the commencement of the next round, the contest is deemed to have ended in the previous round.

5.2.2 Cricket

5.2.2.1 In the case of all types of cricket matches,

- (a) Unless at least one ball is bowled, all declared betting event bets on the match are deemed void and are to be refunded.
- (b) A player who officially retires for any reason other than injury is deemed to be out.
- (c) In the case of 'next batsman out' betting, declared betting event bets on a member of a batting partnership which remains intact at the end of an innings are deemed void and are to be refunded.
- (d) In the case of 'next batsman out' betting, a batsman who officially retires injured during the course of an innings is not considered out for declared betting event betting purposes. In such instances, declared betting event bets relating to the relevant batsman or pairing are deemed void and are to be refunded.
- (e) In the case of 'head-to-head' betting on the number of runs scored, unless both the relevant batsmen are at the wicket when at least one ball is bowled (but not necessarily at the same time) the relevant declared betting event bets are deemed void and are to be refunded.

- (f) A "Mankad" dismissal of a batsman is of similar effect to a dismissal by other means.
- (g) This clause is subject to any specific rulings by the relevant recognised governing body. In the case of betting on player, team or other type of performance over a series of matches (eg most wickets, most catches, most runs or number of catches) any runs, wickets or catches accumulated in matches that were abandoned shall count toward the relevant tallies at the end of the series.

5.2.2.2 A one-day cricket match means a cricket match so classified by the authorised betting event bookmaker with whom the declared betting event bet is made.

5.2.2.3 In the case of one-day and Twenty20 cricket matches only,

- (a) If a match is shortened by the relevant recognised governing body (due to weather, poor light or any other reason) the result is that determined by the relevant recognised governing body under the relevant competition rules.

This clause is subject to clause 6.1.7 herein.

6.1.3 Line betting (Points start)

Unless agreed otherwise by a duly authorised TAB Sports Betting Officer and the customer at the time of making the declared events bet, where betting on the outcome of a declared events betting event involves a line betting (eg points start on a particular match) such line betting shall be set to half a point.

For the purposes of this clause, in the case of declared events bets involving line betting, the outcome of each declared events betting event shall be determined including any extra time, replay or other contingency necessary to determine the official result, unless agreed otherwise by a duly authorised TAB Sports Betting Officer and the customer at the time of making the declared events bet. The payout on any declared events bet shall be as agreed between TAB and the customer at the time of making the declared events bet. 6.1.8 Prices not offered for tie, etc

Unless agreed otherwise by a duly authorised TAB Sports Betting Officer and the customer at the time of making the declared events bet, if the result of a declared events betting event is declared with joint winners or placegetters and a tie, draw or dead heat is not a form of betting offered by TAB on that declared events betting event, the revised payout shall be calculated by the following method:

- (i) divide the face value of the declared events betting ticket (the original payout) by the number of competitors involved in the tie, draw or dead heat, then
- (ii) multiply the figure obtained in 6.1.8 (i) by the number of official placings to be filled by the competitors figuring in the tie, draw or dead heat.

6.1.9 Multiple bets and tie, etc

Unless agreed otherwise by a duly authorised TAB Sports Betting Officer and the customer at the time of making the declared events bet and subject to clauses 6.1.7 and 6.1.8, in declared events bets involving more than one contingency or declared events betting event:

- (a) if the selection in any of the contingencies or declared events betting events loses, or is deemed to have lost, the whole of the declared events bet is lost;
- (b) if one or more of the contingencies or declared events betting events results in a tie, draw or dead heat, the revised return for each leg shall be calculated by applying the method set out in clause 6.1.8 herein and the revised payout shall be the amount obtained as the product of the cumulative price applicable and the original stake;
- (c) where the declared events bet covers two or more declared events betting events and one or more declared events betting events is decided in the customer's favour but any remaining declared events betting event is subsequently postponed and not officially scheduled to be replayed or conducted within three (3) calendar days of the original scheduled date, or any remaining declared events betting event is abandoned, the revised payout shall be the amount obtained as the product of the cumulative price applicable (at the time the declared events bet was made) to the declared events betting events decided in the customer's favour and the original stake.

6.1.10 Cancellation of declared events betting event prior to commencement

Subject to clause 6.1.9(c), if any declared events betting event is cancelled prior to its commencement, or abandoned, TAB shall refund all declared events bets made on that declared events betting event.

6.1.11 Reliance on official or podium positions

Unless agreed otherwise by a duly authorised TAB Sports Betting Officer and the customer at the time of making the declared events bet, wagers on declared events betting events will be settled on the official or podium positions as per the adjudication of the relevant, recognised governing body. Subsequent disqualification, promotion of competitors, or any other change is irrelevant for the purposes of determining the result of a declared events bet.

6.1.12 Declared events bets placed after completion of relevant declared events betting event

Any declared events bet placed after the completion of the declared events betting event to which it relates is deemed void and is to be refunded to the customer. 8 CLAIMS AND DISPUTES

8.1 Lost, destroyed, mutilated or stolen declared events betting ticket claims

8.1.1 Lodgement of claims

Claims for lost, destroyed, mutilated or stolen declared events betting tickets shall be lodged within 14 days of the completion of the declared events betting event upon which the declared events bet was made. Claims may be lodged at any TAB outlet and not necessarily the TAB outlet at which the declared events betting ticket was purchased.

8.1.2 Claim administration fees

TAB may charge an administration fee, as notified by TAB from time to time, on all claims for lost, destroyed, mutilated or stolen declared events betting tickets.

8.1.3 Need for statutory declarations

A statutory declaration in such form and containing such information as TAB may require shall accompany each claim.

8.1.4 Stolen ticket claims

A claim for a stolen declared events betting ticket prior to the declared events betting ticket becoming payout bearing will not be accepted without the claimant's prior report of the theft to the police.

8.1.5 Claims lodged prior to the completion of events

Unless the declared events betting ticket stake value exceeds $100 (one hundred dollars), claims will not be accepted prior to the completion of the respective declared events betting event and the declared events betting ticket becoming eligible for payout.

8.1.6 Acknowledgement of claim being received

The claimant will be issued with written acknowledgement of their claim within 21 days of their claim being received by TAB's Head Office Account Management or Customer Relations Section.

8.1.7 Time frame for claims

Claims will not be accepted after 14 days from the completion of the declared events betting event, unless the claimant can provide a valid reason for the delay in lodging the claim.

8.1.8 Delays to payout pending the outcome of a claim

TAB may stop payment on the declared events betting ticket pending the outcome of its investigation.

8.1.8 Settlement of approved claims

Following investigation by TAB of the claim for the lost, destroyed, mutilated or stolen declared events betting ticket, if TAB is satisfied that the claimant is entitled to a payout or refund on the declared events betting ticket then:

- (a) Approved claims will be settled by way of a:
 - (i) voucher payable at any TAB outlet except for amounts greater than $500 (five hundred dollars);
 - (ii) cheque in favour of the claimant ; or
 - (iii) deposit to the claimant's nominated betting account; and
- (b) TAB will immediately record the cancellation of the declared events betting ticket.

8.2.1 Claims concerning records of telephone declared events bets

Within 14 days after making a telephone declared events bet or within such further time as TAB may allow, a customer may lodge a written claim with TAB to the effect:

- (a) that the details of the declared events bet given by the customer when making the declared events bet were incorrectly recorded; and

If after investigating the claim, TAB is satisfied:

- (a) that the claim is justified; and and must refund such amount or pay such payout to the claimant as TAB considers to be just and reasonable.

Any election by the claimant not to have the details of a declared events bet repeated, as referred to in Clause 3.3.3 may be taken into account in TAB's investigation of the claim.

8.2.2 Claims concerning betting account statements

Within 14 days after TAB sends a customer a statement relating to a betting account or within such further time as TAB may allow, the customer may lodge a written claim with TAB to the effect that the statement contains an error or omission.

If, after investigating a claim, TAB is satisfied that the claim is justified, TAB must make any appropriate alteration to its records and must forward a corrected statement to the claimant.

A customer is not entitled to make a claim under this clause if the basis of the claim is attributable to a claim referred to in Clause 8.2.1. of these Rules.

8.3 GENERAL

8.3.1 Information to accompany claims

A claim under this part need not be investigated unless the claimant gives to TAB such information, and such declared events betting tickets or other documents as are in the claimant's possession, as may be necessary to facilitate investigation of the claim.

- (a) must notify the claimant of its decision; and
- (b) may pay such payout or refund to the claimant as TAB considers to be just and reasonable.

8.3.3 Review of decisions of claims

A customer who is dissatisfied with TAB's decision on a claim under this part may request TAB to review its decision.

TAB must deal with such a request in the same way as if it were a complaint, except that the person by whom the request is dealt with must not be:

- (a) the person by whom the original claim was dealt with; or
- (b) a person who is under the supervision of the person by whom the original claim was dealt with.

This clause does not authorise more than one request to be made in relation to any one claim.
