New South Wales

Number 572–Local Government

Friday, 9 December 2022

The New South Wales Government Gazette is the permanent public record of official NSW Government notices. It also contains local council, non-government and other notices.

Each notice in the Government Gazette has a unique reference number that appears in parentheses at the end of the notice and can be used as a reference for that notice (for example, (n2019-14)).

The Gazette is compiled by the Parliamentary Counsel's Office and published on the NSW legislation website (www.legislation.nsw.gov.au) under the authority of the NSW Government. The website contains a permanent archive of past Gazettes.

To submit a notice for gazettal, see the Gazette page.

[Note: The NSW Government Gazette is a permanent public record. As such, notices cannot be changed once gazettal has taken place. Erratum notices can figuratively correct an error but no tangible change can be made to the original notice.

The following is an example that should be adapted as required, with attention paid to the basic requirements of a Gazette erratum notice available in the Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQs\) — for agencies]
