New South Wales

Number 585–Other

Friday, 15 December 2023

The New South Wales Government Gazette is the permanent public record of official NSW Government notices. It also contains local council, non-government and other notices.

Each notice in the Government Gazette has a unique reference number that appears in parentheses at the end of the notice and can be used as a reference for that notice (for example, (n2019-14)).

The Gazette is compiled by the Parliamentary Counsel's Office and published on the NSW legislation website (www.legislation.nsw.gov.au) under the authority of the NSW Government. The website contains a permanent archive of past Gazettes.

CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993
ORDER UNDER SECTION 12
CY PRES SCHEME RELATING TO THE JOSH WOOLFSON SCHOLARSHIP

Section 12(1)(a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 (the Act) permits the Attorney General to establish a cy pres scheme to alter the original purpose of a charitable trust. Section 9(1) permits the application of trust property cy pres where the spirit of the original trust can no longer be implemented.

The Josh Woolfson Scholarship (the Scholarship) was established by an inter vivos gift to the University of Sydney (the University) by Mrs B E (Liz) Woolfson (Mrs Woolfson) in 2012 to endow in perpetuity one or more named undergraduate scholarships for students undertaking their final year of study in the Sydney Medical School. As at 25 September 2022, the Scholarship was valued at $211,831.00.

Under the terms of the gift, the Scholarship was to be awarded to undergraduate students in financial hardship in their final year of study in the Sydney Medical School. The Sydney Medical School has existed since 1856 and forms part of the Faculty of Medicine and Health at the University. In 2014, the University replaced the undergraduate Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBBS) with a postgraduate degree of Doctor of Medicine. The last cohort of MBBS was in 2013. As the undergraduate MBBS is no longer offered at the University, the original terms of the trust have become impossible to fulfil.

The University holds the gift from Ms Woolfson on an express trust for the purpose of awarding a scholarship. Trusts for the establishment and award of scholarships for students at educational institutions or for study in a recognised field, such as medicine, are charitable as they fall within the charitable head of advancement of education.

As the University now offers medicine at a postgraduate level, a cy pres scheme is required to remove the requirement that a candidate or candidates must be an undergraduate student undertaking their final year of study in the Sydney Medical School. The proposed scheme would instead require that the candidate or candidates be undertaking their final year of study in the Sydney Medical School. The condition that the Scholarship would be awarded to a candidate or candidates in financial hardship would continue.

As the gift was expressly made for the benefit of medical students in their final year of study at the University who are in financial hardship, and noting it appears Ms Woolfson intended that the gift be for the benefit of medical students at the University, rather than any other University, the proposed new trust purpose is sufficiently close to the original purpose of the trust.

In these circumstances, I, as the Attorney General's delegate, have approved the establishment of a cy pres scheme to alter the original purposes of the charitable trust so as to enable the Scholarship to be awarded to students in financial hardship in their final year of study at the Sydney Medical School.

Pursuant to section 12 of the Act, I hereby order that a cy pres scheme be established whereby the original purposes of the charitable trust known as the Josh Woolfson Scholarship are altered so as to enable the Scholarship to be awarded to students in financial hardship undertaking their final year of study in the Sydney Medical School.

The order will take effect 21 days after its publication in the NSW Government Gazette, in accordance with section 16(2) of the Act.

Date of Order: 18 August 2023
