SUPREME COURT PRACTICE NOTE SC Eq 15

Supreme Court Equity Division – Applications List

Commencement

1. This Practice Note was issued on 25 September 2025 and commences on 25 September 2025.

Aim

2. This Practice Note aims to facilitate the prompt and efficient resolution of motions assigned by a Judge or the Registrar in Equity (the Registrar) to the Applications List (the List).

Operation of the List

3. Unless a Judge otherwise orders, all motions (not assigned to another list) are returnable in the first instance before the Registrar who is responsible for managing them, but who may, at any stage, list a motion in the List or refer it to the Judge assigned, from time to time, to administer the List (the List Judge).
4. The Registrar will generally list a motion in the List to come before the List Judge for directions or hearing no earlier than fourteen (14) days after the first return before the Registrar.
5. The Court expects that practitioners and any self-represented parties appearing in the List will have full familiarity with the motion.
6. All motions will initially be managed in the List, however only motions with an agreed hearing estimate of two (2) hours or less will be placed in the List. Motions with agreed hearing estimates will be listed before the Registrar for the allocation of a hearing date.

7. The List is administered in Court on Friday of each week commencing at 9:30am. Hearings are in person unless in any particular matter the List Judge has ordered otherwise.
8. The List closes on 12 noon on Thursday before the listing. Consent orders resolving a motion, seeking an adjournment of not exceeding fourteen (14) days to enable discussion between the parties or providing directions to prepare a motion for hearing can be sent to the List Judge's Associate up to that time to avoid an appearance. Any other consent arrangements between the parties will be dealt with at the directions hearing. The short minutes should be provided in PDF and word format.
9. At the commencement of the List, the List Judge will call each of the motions through to ascertain whether the motion requires directions to be made to prepare it for hearing or is ready for hearing. If the motion is ready for hearing, the List Judge should also be told the agreed hearing estimate and will allocate a time for hearing on that or some other day.
10. The Court expects that those appearing for an applicant in an unopposed motion will be prepared for the disposition of the motion on that day.
11. Where an opposed motion is made returnable for directions before the List Judge or referred to the List Judge by the Registrar, the parties are expected to cooperate, so far as is practicable, to have the motion dealt with on that day. If the parties inform the List Judge that they are in a position to proceed to a hearing of the motion immediately, the List Judge will endeavour to enable that to occur.
12. Where the Registrar lists a motion which is expected to be opposed before the List Judge, the moving party is, not later than three (3) working days after the referral, to file and serve and email to the List Judge's Associate a brief written outline not exceeding two (2) pages supporting the interlocutory relief sought and the opposing party is not later than two (2) working days before the listing to file and serve and email to the List Judge's Associate a brief written outline in response not exceeding two (2) pages (1.5 spacing, 12pt font).
13. For any motion which the parties wish the List Judge to hear, by no later than 10am on the Thursday before the listing, the parties are to email and deliver a paginated Motion Court Book in a ring-binder (without tabs) to the Chambers of the List Judge containing all materials upon which the parties intend to rely on the motion, including:

- (a) any draft proposed short minutes of order;
- (b) the affidavits to be read on the motion, which are annotated to each of the exhibit's Court Book pagination;
- (c) the exhibits; and
- (d) any additional submissions to those already provided, which are not to exceed two (2) pages.

3. This Practice Note explains the operation of the Defamation List in the District Court of New South Wales.

Application

4. This Practice Note applies to all new and existing proceedings for defamation, breach of privacy (Privacy and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2024 (Cth)) and injurious falsehood filed in or transferred to the Sydney Registry.
5. Defamation, breach of privacy and injurious falsehood proceedings filed in registries other than Sydney will be transferred to the Sydney Registry for case management by the Defamation List Judge and, in the case of urgent interim applications, by the Civil List Judge, or such other judge that he or she may direct.
6. A judge, or the Registrar of any registry besides the Sydney Registry, may, of his or her own accord, or upon application by any party to the proceedings, transfer any defamation, breach of privacy or injurious falsehood claim to Sydney for inclusion in the Defamation List or before the Civil List Judge (if the application is for an urgent interim injunction for breach of privacy) for case management.
7. Proceedings filed in the Sydney Registry that include a defamation claim together with a claim for breach of privacy should contain the words "Defamation List" and be entered in the Defamation List. Applications for urgent interim injunctions may be heard in this list.
8. Applications for interim injunctions in defamation proceedings should be made to the Defamation List Judge or, if that judge is not available, to the Civil List Judge.

Defamation List

9. The Defamation List will be conducted fortnightly on dates allocated at the commencement of the court term.
10. The Defamation List will be conducted with the aim of achieving the just, quick and cheap resolution of the real issues in the proceedings and promoting the objects of the Defamation Act 2005 (NSW).

Pleadings

11. Any pleadings filed in proceedings in the Defamation List will be allocated a return date by the Registry.
12. If the Statement of Claim has not been served within the one-month period provided for by UCPR r 6.2, an application for extension of time to serve the Statement of Claim must be sought and evidence of attempts at service provided.
13. At the first listing in the Defamation List, the parties will be expected to:
 - (a) advise the Court of objections to the form of the Statement of Claim, applications for extension of the limitation period or other issues requiring resolution before a Defence may be filed;
 - (b) provide a timetable for the timely conduct of interlocutory steps; and
 - (c) advise the Court of steps the parties propose to take in relation to mediation, including any likely future request for court mediation.
14. No application for any interlocutory step (including any application for judgment or to strike out proceedings) will be entertained unless the party seeking the order has given reasonable notice in writing to the party and to the Court. Any application for interlocutory rulings should include a concise description of the issues and a list of authorities.
15. Notices of Motion are not required for interlocutory arguments unless otherwise ordered.
16. When all interlocutory steps have been completed, the Defamation List Judge will allocate a hearing date provided the estimate for the hearing is less than five days. Where the estimate for the hearing is five days or more the proceedings will be referred to the Civil List Judge for a hearing date. Hearing dates, when allocated, will not be vacated other than in exceptional circumstances.

17. When a hearing date is sought, both parties must inform the Court of the following:

- (a) an estimate of the trial length and the number of witnesses;
- (b) whether there will be an application for evidence to be given by AVL or by telephone;
- (c) whether there will be an application for expert evidence to be given concurrently;

- (e) where the proceedings are to be heard by a jury, that notice has been served on the opponent and the jury retention fee has been and will continue to be paid; and
- (f) the names of counsel briefed, if applicable.

18. A hearing date will not be allocated unless the Court is satisfied that the matter is ready for hearing.

19. Where proceedings are listed for hearing, any applications for further rulings should be made to the trial judge or, if the trial judge is unavailable, the Defamation List Judge.

Show cause hearings and Sections 56 - 62 Civil Procedure Act 2005 (NSW)

20. A party who fails to comply with this Practice Note or a direction of the Court may be called upon to show cause why the proceedings should not be dismissed under Section 61 of the Civil Procedure Act 2005.

21. In determining any matter in the Defamation List, including a show cause hearing, the Court may have regard to the principle of proportionality stated in Section 60 of the Civil Procedure Act 2005.
