MARINE NOTICE

REGULATION OF VESSELS – RESTRICTION OF SPEED OF VESSELS

Marine Safety Act 1998
Section 11(1)

Location

Statewide – all navigable waters of NSW.

Duration

- From 1 July 2025 to 12:00 midnight 30 April 2026.

Regulation

Pursuant to section 11(2A)(a) and 11(3)(c) of the Marine Safety Act 1998, a maximum speed restriction of 60 knots (approximately 110 kilometres per hour) is temporarily imposed on all powered vessels towing any person of any age, in NSW navigable waters.

Penalties may apply (section 11(4) - Marine Safety Act 1998).

This Notice does not derogate from any local waterway restriction on the towing of persons where a lower speed limit has been set, and any such local limit continues to apply.

Explanatory Note

For the safety of the public, Transport for NSW as delegate of the Minister has determined to limit the speed of any vessel towing any person in NSW navigable waters to 60 knots pending review of the waterway traffic arrangements for the State, in particular concerning the safety of persons involved in watersport activities.

Clause 46 of the Marine Safety Regulation 2016 limits the speed of any vessel towing a person under the age of 18 to 60 knots. By this Notice, that regulation is effectively extended to cover any person of any age being towed.
